

From Mr. W. Sargent.

Barrington, March 19th. 1855.

To M. G. Black, Esq.

MY DEAR SIR,—I have the satisfaction of enclosing in this—sixteen pounds ten shillings from our Branch Bible Society, and which you will place to account as follows: ten pounds as a free contribution to the objects of the Parent Society, and the balance of six pounds ten shillings you will please credit us with on purchase account. I shall probably send by some of the first vessels that go to Halifax for the Books. We should have had a few pounds more to forward, but some of our valued female collectors were unavoidably prevented making their annual visit to the friends in their districts.

Several numbers of the monthly extracts of Correspondence have come to hand, for which I conclude I am indebted to you, and you have my thanks for this attention. The intelligence they contain is interesting and encouraging, and one would suppose if such cheering intelligence was more widely disseminated amongst our population, the result would be highly advantageous in inducing a more general and a more liberal contribution to the funds of the Bible Society.

I subjoin a statement of our cash account that it, or any part of it, that may be deemed proper, may appear in your Annual Report.

Cash Account, Barrington Bible Society.
