

ANOTHER GIGANTIC SWINDLE.—London advice of the 4th March state that the case of the Memphis & El Paso Railroad bonds has been set down for trial before the Criminal Tribunal of Paris, on March 4. Gen. Gremont and six others have been arraigned on charge of swindling by sale of the fraudulent and worthless bonds to the extent of six million dollars. Exposure not unlike those which characterized the Credit Mobilier investigation are expected. Gen. Fremont has been elected to appear, but answered that he cannot get to Paris in time.

In the history of the "Press of Maine," just published by Mr. Griffin, are the names of over four hundred authors belonging to that State, with a description of their books, amounting to more than thirteen hundred.
Of this number one hundred and fifty are from the pen of Jacob Abbott.

A cow at Rome, Ga., lay down in a damp place the other day, and her tail froze firmly to the ground. When she got up there was another cold snap—the tail actually broke.

The unpleasant discovery has been made by the health officer of London that rotten and maggoty figs are used in the preparation of cheap preserves, and that the mixture is made "thick and slab" with common glue, bad plums, etc.

A tall, slim friend of the New York Post is in trouble. He wants to know what character to assume at a masquerade. A Gotham journal advises him to chalk his head and go as a billiard cue.

He made a brave attempt and got a whip lash.—Courier Journal.

He might spend himself round and round a few dozen times and go as a roll of tape.— Lexington Caucasian.

It's a poor work always settin' the dead above the livin'. We shall all on us be dead some time, I reckon—it ud be better if folks ud make much on us beforehand instid o' beginin' when we're gone. It's but little good you'd do a waterin' the last year's crop.— George Eliot.
