

4. While in the College, or going to or from it, Students are expected to conduct themselves in the same orderly manner as in the Class-rooms. Any Professor observing improper conduct in the College buildings or grounds, may admonish the Student, and if necessary report him to the Dean.

5. Every Student is required to attend regularly the religious services of the denomination to which he belongs, and to maintain, without, as well as within, the walls of the College a good moral character.

6. When Students are brought before the Faculty under the above rules, the Faculty may reprimand, report to parents or guardians, impose fines, disqualify from competing for prizes and honours, suspend from Classes, or report to the Corporation for expulsion.

7. Any Student who does not report his residence, on or before Nov. 1st in each year, is liable to a fine of one dollar.

8. Any Student injuring the furniture or buildings will be required to repair the same at his own expense, and will, in addition, be subject to such other penalty as the Faculty may see fit to inflict.

9. All cases of discipline involving the interest of more than one Faculty, or of the University in general, shall be immediately reported to the Principal, or in his absence, to the Vice-Principal.

§ IX. LIBRARY AND MUSEUM.

1. The books in the Library consist of two divisions :—1st, those which may be lent ; and, 2nd, those designated by the general term " Books of Reference," which may not, under any circumstances be removed from the Library.

2. A Student may borrow books from the Library on depositing the sum of four dollars with the Librarian, and signing a receipt for the books ; such deposit to be returned to the Student on his returning the books uninjured.

[NOTE.—This rule applies also to Students in Law and Medicine who have paid the Library Fee to the Secretary. They are required to present their Matriculation Tickets to the Secretary and to the Librarian.]

3. Students may borrow not more than three volumes at one time, except on special recommendation of a Professor, and must return them within two weeks, on penalty of a fine of 20 cts. for the first week of detention, and 50 cts. for each subsequent week.

4. A Student incurring a fine will be debarred the use of the Library until the fine has been paid.

5. Any volume or volumes lost or damaged by a student shall be paid for by him, at such rates as the Faculty may direct, having reference to the value of the book and of the set to which it may belong.

6. Students may read in the Library at such hours as may be determined by the Faculty.
