On August 4, 1903, Cardinal Satte was elected Pope by the Cardinals in conclave at Rome. He took the name of Pius X. Under the heading of "Long Live the Pope," today's Monitor editorially says:

Hail to the triple-crowned Chief of the Catholic world. His Holiness Pius X., now gloriously reigning, on Sunday he completes the fourth year of his successful pontificate, having been elected Supreme Pontiff on August 4, 1903.

Worthy successor of a long line of distinguished rulers, he has in five many years more to govern his faithful subjects the world over.

LET HIS DAUGHTER DIE, HE IS GIVEN THIRTY DAYS

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Clarence W. Byrne, a salesman, who was recently convicted of failing to employ medical assistance for his six year old daughter, who died of pneumonia, was today sentenced to thirty days' imprisonment by the court of general sessions. Byrne was found guilty of violating a section of a penal code which provides: "A person who wilfully omits, without lawful excuse to perform a duty by law imposed upon him to furnish food, clothing, shelter or medical attendance to a minor, is guilty of a misdemeanor." The complainant was Coroner P. J. Arcelli. The decision was given by Justice Keen and the whole court was unanimous for conviction and sentence.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 2.—During a thunderstorm at Mallison Falls, South Windham, this evening, Frank Elliott and his son, Seth, were struck by lightning, the bolt entering their home. Both are still unconscious but the attending physician said that there was hope that each would recover.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 2.—Attorney General Bonaparte has rendered an opinion to the acting secretary of war, stating in effect that the naval militia of the United States is a part of the organized militia, which if accepted by the department will give an opportunity for teams from the naval militia to enter the rifle contests at Camp Perry, Ohio, during this month.

OTTAWA, Aug. 2.—Anthony McGill has been appointed chief analyst of Canada, in place of Thomas MacFarlane, who died last month. Mr. McGill has been assistant for many years.

PEOPLE ARE LOSING THEIR SENSE OF SIN

Complete Reformation of the Church is Needed to Accomplish Effective Work.

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., Aug. 2.—That a reorganization of the Christian Church of today is necessary because of the realization of sin is lost in the people, was the main point of the address of R. B. Meyer, the famous English preacher and writer, who made the opening address before a thousand people at the twenty-fifth annual session of the general conference for Christian workers, founded by D. J. Moody, and which convened here this evening.

It is stated authoritatively that the gathering this evening was the largest that has ever attended the conference. The chairman of the conference, who presided this evening, is W. R. Moody, the eldest son of the famous evangelist. Dr. Meyer was the first speaker this evening. He said that the church of today could only meet the acute difficulties of her present position by reverting to her original type, during the first century. "The sense of sin," he said, "is almost a lost experience among the people of this area and it must be recreated in their souls. The church must be reorganized and the high ideals of the past must be revived."

The other speaker this evening was Baron Waldemar Utkull, of St. Petersburg, and treasurer of the Russian Baptist Union. He has but recently returned to this country from his native land, and expressed his opinion this evening that the political outlook in Russia when he was there did not suggest in any way a great revolution. He thought that it would be some years before the government was finally reorganized, but said that in his opinion it would not be a great many years hence when Russia would be, like England, a limited monarchy.

"The people of Russia," said Baron Utkull, "do not love the Czar, but they do not want him killed."

"The people of my country concluded the speaker, "like the people of the United States very much."

The feature of the conference is the music, which is under the direction of Charles M. Alexander.

Another event on the programme is the sunset services, which are being held every evening. The service is held on Round Top, the knoll where Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Moody are buried. The conference will be continued tomorrow.

JAMES McLEOD DROWNED IN PHILADELPHIA

Mrs. Sarah McLeod, of 613 Main street, received word yesterday that her son James was drowned off the schooner Abbie and Eva Hooper in Philadelphia on Thursday night. The telegram contained no particulars of the drowning. James McLeod was 30 years of age and is survived by his mother, two sisters and four brothers. The sisters are: Mrs. Charles Sweet, Main street; and Mrs. John King, and the brothers are: William, of Hampton, and Malcolm, Richard and Norman, of this city.

The body will be brought here for burial.

HILLSBORO LOCKUP IN USE AT LAST

HILLSBORO, N. B., Aug. 2.—This evening the Hillsboro lockup was used for the first time. Provincial Constable James Irving was compelled to lodge James Gallagher, who for years has been a public nuisance so that patience ceased to be a virtue. The streets have been cleared of a profane and vulgar disgrace to the community. It is hoped this will have a good effect.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Aug. 2.—James Kent, senior member of the legislature from the eastern division of St. John's, was appointed attorney general today, in succession to Sir Edward Morris, who resigned last week. Kent was special counsel for the government in the prosecution of the west coast herring fisheries cases last winter.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Aug. 2.—The farmers of this vicinity lost thousands of dollars worth of produce during a late storm. The storm was the heaviest of the kind experienced here in many years. Hills stones as large as marbles fell in such quantities that boys on the streets were able to make snowballs. Growing crops, especially garden trucks, were badly damaged and in many cases ruined.

SYDNEY COUPLE HELD HERE ON THEFT CHARGE

Italian Man and Woman Arrested This Morning on Telegraphic Instructions.

Chief Clark received a telegram from Wm. R. Hearn, the magistrate at Sydney, C. B., asking that the trains be watched and to arrest Joseph Ventresca, an Italian, and his wife, Concetta Ventresca, who are wanted in Sydney for stealing $300. The couple left Sydney yesterday at one o'clock, and were accompanied by a nine months' old child. The man was described as having smooth face, long nose and being about 22 years of age, and the woman as 25 years of age.

Policeman Crawford was sent to the depot this morning, and on arrival of the night express from Halifax had little difficulty in recognizing the couple. The man is now locked up in a cell, and the woman and infant are in the guard room at Central station. Chief Clark has wired Sydney to send an officer after them.
