LEGS SEVERED, HE TIES

STUMPS, ROLLS TO AID

Takes Off Shoes and Uses Laces to Check Flow of Blood—Struck by Locomotive.

UTICA, N. Y., Jan. 25.—Struck by a locomotive, Clayton Jackson, on returning his senses, found both his legs severed. With rare pluck he set about saving his life by removing his shoes and tying the laces around the stumps of his limbs to stop the flow of blood.

He then rolled over and over in the snow for a third of a mile to a railway signal shanty, where he obtained medical aid.

Jackson, with Thomas McTernan and James Doherty, were run down while walking the track of the New York Central Railroad in the outskirts of this city.

A stiff wind was blowing and they did not hear an approaching locomotive.

Doherty was ground to pieces and his body was strewn along the roadbed for a quarter of a mile. McTernan was hurled forty feet and his skull crushed in. He died later in a hospital.

The engine was running backward at the time and the crew, unaware of the accident, continued on to this city.

without slackening speed, Jackson's life hangs by a thread.

LOGICAL ECZEMA CURE ENDORSED BY PHYSICIANS

Dr. R. A. Folker, of Duluth, Minn., tells of his success in treating patients with D. D. D. Prescription:
"There was a man here suffering from eczema for the last fourteen years, and I applied the D. D. D. treatment. I also applied it to a man of West Duluth, Minn., who has been suffering with eczema in his feet, and the second treatment, in both cases cleared the skin almost absolutely.
The first application is a balm, and its soothing effect is beyond expression. I shall never be without it, and shall use it among my patients altogether."

No matter how terribly you suffer from eczema, scurf, rheum, ringworm, etc., you will feel INSTANTLY soothed and the itch allayed at once when a few drops of this compound of oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., is applied. The cures all seem to be permanent, and we recommend it unhesitatingly. Chas. R. Wasson, Druggist, (two stores).

LOSS OF THUMB KILLS

HIS BASEBALL CAREER

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—A buzz saw recently cut short the promising career of Earl Proctor, of Rockville Centre, L. I., as a baseball pitcher, by severing his thumb—that indispensable part of a baseball player's anatomy. Proctor was obliged to relinquish the diamond and come down to the daily grind of a bank clerk. Today the supreme court awarded him $2500 damages from the machine construction company operating the saw.

DIED IN SNOWBANK

LEWISTON, Me., Feb. 25.—The body of the man found half buried in the snow at Oxford today, has been positively identified by Sheriff Hastings as that of John McDermott, aged 44, of Lewiston, who was released Thursday last from Auburn jail, where he had served a sentence for intoxication. Mc-Dermott was a weaver and came to Lewiston from Dexter. He had been working in Sabbath and when he left the jail he told the keeper that he was going to Mechanic Falls in search of work.

false work this afternoon, and fell 25 feet to the ice, receiving injuries that resulted fatally about an hour later.

he had a wife and two children.

PRINCESS TO WED

FRENCH PRETENDER

Clementine of Belgium and Prince Victor Napoleon

Now That Her Royal Father is Dead
She Will Marry Lover Next October.

For years the continental newspapers have been marrying Princess Clementine of Belgium to Victor Napoleon, the French pretender, and then denying the story afterward. So when the rumors began to revive immediately after King Leopold's death they were not taken very seriously, especially as and three children already. But now for the first time the reports have a foundation, and the pair are to be married next October.

Six years ago the Belgians learned with pleased surprise that joy had come into the life of Princess Clementine, the youngest daughter of the late King Leopold II., for they had learned to look on the gracious and sad princess as a martyr to filial duty. The announcement of her engagement to Prince Victor Napoleon made many happy who pitied the princess' weary life.

The announcement was not premature, but the rejoicings at it were, for King Leopold, regarding his consent to the proposed marriage, put an end to all thought of it during his lifetime.
King Leopold thought himself just; he was a hard man to all and hardest to his own family; and he never changed his mind.

The engagement between the Belgian princess and the pretender to the Bonaparte throne was a romantic one.
For 24 years, since he was exiled from France, the chief of the Bonapartists has lived in Brussels. His life, in outward appearance, was one of somewhat miserable resignation.

Brussels is a small city, yet Princess Clementine seldom met Prince Victor in any public place. The first inkling of the fact that the two were lovers was given at one of the Bonaparte paper chases which are among the favorite recreations of Brussels society.

At this paper chase, Prince Victor was the winner, and Princess Clementine attended the trophy, a beautiful ribbons, to his coat. Her acknowledged insignificance; at once the management was declared to be certain. Prince Victor's formal demand for the king's consent to it followed quickly. King Leo-pold's refusal was dashed out at him like lightning.

King Leopold based his refusal to allow his daughter to marry the Bonaparte pretender on reasons of state.
His country was on friendly terms with the French republic; he said, so he could not consent to an alliance with one who sought to destroy the republic. Quite as strong a reason of state was the king's hatred of the Bon-apartes; he was a grandson of Louis Philippe, the strongest of all his reasons was his determination to keep Princess Clementine by him to appear by his side at public ceremonies, and disprove, by such appearance, the stories told of disunion in the royal household.

Unfortunately for the happiness of Princess Clementine these stories were true. In the royal household there was little union except on the surface. When

When Starting on That Winter Trip

Don't Forget

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE One of the Essentials

On your winter vacation you will most certainly want a bottle of Herpicide. This is doubly true if your trip contemplates a visit to a warmer climate. It is under conditions of warmth and humidity that the viciousness of the dandruff germ is particularly noticeable.

AS IMPORTANT AS HER TOOTH BRUSH

"I find Newbro's Herpicide very beneficial for dandruff. I would no more think of going on a journey without a bottle of Herpicide than I would without my tooth powder. By using it often and thoroughly I find I do not require a shampoo as frequently and my hair is—"
Middlebury, Vt.

Mrs. M. J. Wilce.

AN OPINION FROM THE WORLD'S GREATEST LADY RIFLE SHOT

"Traveling as I do—almost continuously—I have been troubled a great deal with dandruff and falling hair and until I tried Herpicide I never found a remedy that was satisfactory.

Herpicide is a delightful preparation, and fulfills the claims you make for it and no lady's toilet is complete without it. I heartily recommend it to my friends."

Nutley, N. J.

Annie Oakley.

The germ is always busy. There is no escape, except in the use of regular intervals of Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide carries sure and certain death to this germ and is the only reliable remedy.
An imitation or something just as good won't do. Insist on having genuine Herpicide.
