

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY

The House adjourned at half-past 10 o'clock. Beyond routine business, the only subject of interest was a motion made by Mr. Macdonald, that a Committee be appointed to inquire into the cost of printing the Debates in the French language, which was carried on a division, and referred to the Finance Committee on Friday next.

LECTURER GENERAL MACKENZIE OF THE COLONIAL GUARDS. Lieutenant Colonel James Mackenzie, who was at the battle of Waterloo, was the subject of a lecture given by the lecturer on the 21st of February, 1848. Mackenzie (and Captain) and in 1825, Captain (and Lieutenant) of the 10th Regiment of Foot, distinguished for having given to the country many brave officers, and it is worthy of mention that all belonging to the 10th Regiment were killed in the storming of Fort Mifflin.

Another interesting fact is, that Mackenzie was wounded at the battle of Waterloo, and his wound was so severe that he was obliged to be carried off the field. He was afterwards promoted to the rank of Major-General, and he died in 1848.

FATHER MATHEW. The following letter from the Great Apostle of Temperance to George Thomas Hayes, Esq., M. D., Haecourt-street, Dublin, dated so far back as the 20th February, 1845, will explain the cause of his getting into debt; and our great surprise is why his countrymen, and particularly the Temperance Society, should have suffered that debt to remain so long unpaid.

My dear Dr. Hayes—Accept my sincere thanks for your excellent kind letter, and for the extract from your valuable work, "Physical and Moral Reform," which I have just received. I have read it with interest and pleasure, and I have no doubt that it will be read with interest and pleasure by all who are engaged in the cause of temperance.

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

1. How did Father Mathew come to be so poor as to require assistance? 2. How did he come to be so poor as to require assistance? 3. How did he come to be so poor as to require assistance? 4. How did he come to be so poor as to require assistance? 5. How did he come to be so poor as to require assistance?

Relative to the second inquiry—The confiding Father Mathew might reasonably conclude that he had secured for a man of his rank, in order to be able to do his duty, as they ought to be, by the people for whom he had undertaken such a labour of love. But independently of such considerations, he had secured for himself a very liberal salary, which he had not been able to expend, as he had not been able to do so.

LITERATURE

Letters to a Young Lady on leaving School, and entering the world. This is the title of a neatly got up little Volume, written by Mrs. S. Parnell, of this City. It is rarely falls in our lot to be able to announce any thing of a literary nature of Provincial production, that we come to the task with a great deal of pleasure.

Very little indeed, need be added by us to the excellent man, Father Mathew, whose private sufferings all classes in society must deplore. It is the people of New Brunswick, we would speak in the memorable words of Dean Swift's short Chariot Sermon—

THE CHRONICLE. SAINT JOHN, N. B., FEB. 9, 1855. ANOTHER BLOW TO RUSSIAN POWER. While the eyes of all true-hearted British subjects are anxiously turned towards the War now going on in the East, and their hearts bowed with admiration for the glorious achievements of our British Heroes in all the battles they have been engaged in, since they landed in the Crimea—

ITALY AGAIN ON THE RACK. The Treaty of Rome, it appears, is not long done to be confined to the bloody fields and heights of the Crimea. More red gore must be shed—the earth is not sufficiently saturated with the blood of the warriors—the valiant and wild beasts seek and howl for more human flesh, to gratify their rapacious appetites—more war horses must needs be neighing about in quest of their valiant riders, but who shall bestir them no more. The flame is spreading from Pole to Pole! Man, it appears, is never to be satisfied. "More dominion, or blood-crusted fields!" is the declaration of the Autocrat of Russia. "The Pope is superior to all the Kings of the Earth," exclaims the Jesuit. "Not so fast," exclaim the Emperors of France and Austria, "without our troops the Pope's greatness would be like a broken reed—and to demonstrate this fact, and bring his daring arrogances down to a proper level, we now withdraw our troops, and let see wherein rests the Pope's superiority."

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

CONFESSIONS

Mr. Brown—Strange as it may appear, there are persons in this City who, in consequence of being so situated in their notions, as to be reasonable in their expectations, as to be able to employ their time in the purchase of domestic manufactures, instead of the imported articles, which they are so much in the habit of purchasing.

Mr. Brown—Strange as it may appear, there are persons in this City who, in consequence of being so situated in their notions, as to be reasonable in their expectations, as to be able to employ their time in the purchase of domestic manufactures, instead of the imported articles, which they are so much in the habit of purchasing.

Mr. Brown—Strange as it may appear, there are persons in this City who, in consequence of being so situated in their notions, as to be reasonable in their expectations, as to be able to employ their time in the purchase of domestic manufactures, instead of the imported articles, which they are so much in the habit of purchasing.

Mr. Brown—Strange as it may appear, there are persons in this City who, in consequence of being so situated in their notions, as to be reasonable in their expectations, as to be able to employ their time in the purchase of domestic manufactures, instead of the imported articles, which they are so much in the habit of purchasing.

Mr. Brown—Strange as it may appear, there are persons in this City who, in consequence of being so situated in their notions, as to be reasonable in their expectations, as to be able to employ their time in the purchase of domestic manufactures, instead of the imported articles, which they are so much in the habit of purchasing.

Mr. Brown—Strange as it may appear, there are persons in this City who, in consequence of being so situated in their notions, as to be reasonable in their expectations, as to be able to employ their time in the purchase of domestic manufactures, instead of the imported articles, which they are so much in the habit of purchasing.

Mr. Brown—Strange as it may appear, there are persons in this City who, in consequence of being so situated in their notions, as to be reasonable in their expectations, as to be able to employ their time in the purchase of domestic manufactures, instead of the imported articles, which they are so much in the habit of purchasing.

Mr. Brown—Strange as it may appear, there are persons in this City who, in consequence of being so situated in their notions, as to be reasonable in their expectations, as to be able to employ their time in the purchase of domestic manufactures, instead of the imported articles, which they are so much in the habit of purchasing.

STANHOPE BURELIGH—THE JESUITS IN OUR HOMES.

A novel, in three parts. Stringer and Townsend, Publishers, 22, Broad-way, New York. This well-known publication, "Stanhope Bureligh, the Jesuits in our Homes," is an American Romance, in a single thick volume of over four hundred pages, and illustrated by the best American artists. It delineates with graphic power, the subtle intrigues of the Jesuits not only in America, but in whatever country they may obtain footing, both in politics, and in Government.

STANHOPE BURELIGH—THE JESUITS IN OUR HOMES. A novel, in three parts. Stringer and Townsend, Publishers, 22, Broadway, New York. This well-known publication, "Stanhope Bureligh, the Jesuits in our Homes," is an American Romance, in a single thick volume of over four hundred pages, and illustrated by the best American artists.

STANHOPE BURELIGH—THE JESUITS IN OUR HOMES. A novel, in three parts. Stringer and Townsend, Publishers, 22, Broadway, New York. This well-known publication, "Stanhope Bureligh, the Jesuits in our Homes," is an American Romance, in a single thick volume of over four hundred pages, and illustrated by the best American artists.

STANHOPE BURELIGH—THE JESUITS IN OUR HOMES. A novel, in three parts. Stringer and Townsend, Publishers, 22, Broadway, New York. This well-known publication, "Stanhope Bureligh, the Jesuits in our Homes," is an American Romance, in a single thick volume of over four hundred pages, and illustrated by the best American artists.

STANHOPE BURELIGH—THE JESUITS IN OUR HOMES. A novel, in three parts. Stringer and Townsend, Publishers, 22, Broadway, New York. This well-known publication, "Stanhope Bureligh, the Jesuits in our Homes," is an American Romance, in a single thick volume of over four hundred pages, and illustrated by the best American artists.

STANHOPE BURELIGH—THE JESUITS IN OUR HOMES. A novel, in three parts. Stringer and Townsend, Publishers, 22, Broadway, New York. This well-known publication, "Stanhope Bureligh, the Jesuits in our Homes," is an American Romance, in a single thick volume of over four hundred pages, and illustrated by the best American artists.

STANHOPE BURELIGH—THE JESUITS IN OUR HOMES. A novel, in three parts. Stringer and Townsend, Publishers, 22, Broadway, New York. This well-known publication, "Stanhope Bureligh, the Jesuits in our Homes," is an American Romance, in a single thick volume of over four hundred pages, and illustrated by the best American artists.

STANHOPE BURELIGH—THE JESUITS IN OUR HOMES. A novel, in three parts. Stringer and Townsend, Publishers, 22, Broadway, New York. This well-known publication, "Stanhope Bureligh, the Jesuits in our Homes," is an American Romance, in a single thick volume of over four hundred pages, and illustrated by the best American artists.

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

Protestants of St. John, keep yourselves awake, and hearken to the Bulwark which, in its December number, solves the mystery of Rome's present concern about the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Protestants of St. John, keep yourselves awake, and hearken to the Bulwark which, in its December number, solves the mystery of Rome's present concern about the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Protestants of St. John, keep yourselves awake, and hearken to the Bulwark which, in its December number, solves the mystery of Rome's present concern about the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Protestants of St. John, keep yourselves awake, and hearken to the Bulwark which, in its December number, solves the mystery of Rome's present concern about the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Protestants of St. John, keep yourselves awake, and hearken to the Bulwark which, in its December number, solves the mystery of Rome's present concern about the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Protestants of St. John, keep yourselves awake, and hearken to the Bulwark which, in its December number, solves the mystery of Rome's present concern about the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Protestants of St. John, keep yourselves awake, and hearken to the Bulwark which, in its December number, solves the mystery of Rome's present concern about the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Protestants of St. John, keep yourselves awake, and hearken to the Bulwark which, in its December number, solves the mystery of Rome's present concern about the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception.

THEOBALD MATHEW.

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—

THEOBALD MATHEW. In the appeal now made on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Mathew by Dr. Hayes, to the people of Great Britain, the British Provinces, United States, &c., and the following: "It is unnecessary to dwell upon the merits of Father Mathew—a genuine philanthropist of world-wide celebrity, the distinguished Apostle of Temperance, whose untiring labours have been his means, under Providence, of saving from perdition tens of thousands in England, Ireland, Scotland, and America. But it is necessary to state that the following inquiries, which have been commonly made by those who I found not unwilling to assist the good Father Mathew—