

sum of £13 7s. 6d. ; of which two pounds had been contributed by an unknown friend, to be applied to the carrying out of Missionary purposes, and have been appropriated to that object.

The Newport Committee has again forwarded, by the hands of the Rev. R. J. Uniacke, the handsome amount of £15 0s. 2d.,—a pleasing proof of the sustained interest of that Committee in the operations of the Society.

From Aylesford the sum of £1 17s. 6d. has been forwarded by the Rev. H. L. Owen, being, together with his own subscription, the amount contributed after a Sermon in aid of the Society.

From Clements the Rev. W. M. Godfrey has forwarded the sum of £1 2s. 10½d. ; but the Committee are without any particulars of the formation of a Local Committee in that Parish.

The Committee of St. George's, Cape Breton, to whose meeting allusion has already been made, has remitted the sum of £20.

From the Liverpool Local Committee, S. P. Fairbanks, Esq. the delegate of the present meeting, has paid in the sum of £17.

The Guysboro' Committee, one of the most punctual of our branches, has forwarded the sum of £9 0s. 8½d. ; with a request that £1 13s. 9d., might be applied in aid of efforts for the conversion of the heathen.

The Digby Committee, whose formation under such favourable auspices has already been referred to, has made a remittance of £13 : a sum less than was stated to be the amount of annual contributions, because most of the subscriptions are made payable quarterly.

From Lunenburg, by the hands of John Creighton, Esq. a delegate at this meeting, the sum of £17 has been received.