NEWBURY.

Newbury, Jan. 28.—Following is a copy of a letter of interest to all:
Montreal, Jan. 20, 1915.
Miss M. Graydon, Red Cross Society, Newbury:
We are today in receipt of a letter from the Merchants Bank of Canada, Newbury, enclosing a money order for $27.36, contributed by the Red Cross Society of Newbury to our Belgian Relief Fund. In their letter they asked us to acknowledge receipt of this amount to you. We are very grateful indeed to the Red Cross Society of your town for this splendid contribution. Will you kindly thank them very heartily in our name?
With many thanks to yourself, I am, yours faithfully,
H. Prud'homme, hon. treas.

The induction of Rev. Mr. Malcolm takes place: Friday morning at 10 o'clock in Knox church.
A number of the young people are busy practicing a play to be given in the near future for the Patriotic Fund. Miss Margaret McRae is home from Detroit for a vacation.
The Women's Institute met in the Town Hall Monday afternoon and made bandages for the soldiers. Fifty yards of new cotton donated by Wm. Childs and an immense pile of old cotton was made up. A quilt pieced by Mrs. Matt. Armstrong was put up and quilted. A few days ago Mrs. Dixon gave a quilting bee when two quilts were quilted and finished. The people in this neighborhood are certainly workers.

E. Guse left on Friday for a trip to Alabama, where he has some property.
Newbury, Jan. 27.—Reeve Rush is attending county council in London this week.
A number from here attended a party at Gordon Reyecraft's Friday evening.

A meeting of the Loyal Temperance Legion was held at Mrs. J. G. Bayne's on Jan. 16. Mrs. Heatherington took the lesson, which was very much appreciated. Readings were given by Maude Fennell, Miss Gordon and Elvie Hagith. And Adair Bayne played an instrumental. The next meeting is to be held at Mrs. J. Hammett's on Saturday, January 30th, at three o'clock.

TIME HAS TESTED IT.—Time tests all things, that which is worthy lives; that which is inimical to man's welfare perishes. Time has proved Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. From a few thousand bottles in the early days of its manufacture the demand has risen so that now the production is running into the hundreds of thousands of bottles. What is so eagerly sought for must be good.

EKFRID STATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Durdle, of St. Thomas are visiting at G. C. Smith's. Neil Black, of Toledo, called on friends here last week.
Miss Stacia Dobie was the guest of her aunts, Mrs. D. McCallum and Mrs. James Murray, last week. John Murray spent the week-end with his son Norman at Norwich.
Arch. McAlpine, of Auhrim, spent the week-end at M. Galbraith's.
Dan McLean left on Saturday for his home in Lestock after spending several weeks at his former home here. The secretary of the Ekfrid Social Club generously donated to the patriotic fund the proceeds of their assembly which was held in the town hall, Appin, on Jan. 15th.
The Ekfrid Patriotic Society shipped on Friday last to Montreal en route to Belgium two large bales of underclothing, quilts, shoes, hose, mittens and dresses. They intend giving an entertainment shortly to aid with their patriotic work.

SHEPHERD.

Shepherd, Jan. 29.—Principally "rumors" of war these days. Judging from fireside debates, Shepherd can produce a regiment of generals.

Great scramble on for flour at the mills since prices are climbing. Everybody is skating these evenings. The river never was better. Buzz saws, bean threshers, clover hullers and corn huskers are certainly kicking up a dust around here.

The library board are figuring on a valentine social about the 12th. J. D. Dobyns took another load of lambs to Toronto this week and made very satisfactory sales.
Hip hurrah! We're going to have the gas. Not your foul, stenchy, ill smelling kind, but pure and odorless, and lots of it. "The fellows" were here this week and are going to lay the main at once. Every house in town, the mill, the store, the pump factory, the church, the hall, the school and anything else that requires warming up or lighted, and at a "penny a pound," too. Don't you wish you lived in Shepherd?

Good-bye to Asthma.—Persons suffering from that extremely trying trouble known as asthma know what it is to long with all their hearts for escape from a tyrant. Never do they know when an attack may come and they know that to struggle unaided is vain. With Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy at hand, however, they can say good-bye to their enemy and enjoy life again. It helps at once.

MIDDLEMISS.

Geo. Lucas has purchased a two year-old colt from F. A. Griswold. Geo. Watson is under the doctor's care.
H. B. McArthur is out canvassing for fruit tree orders.
J. A. McDonald unloaded another car of chestnut coal this week.
Wm. Grahain is smiling all over. "A boy this time."
A. R. W. Burrows has sold his general store and stock to R. Fletcher, of Cowal, who takes possession about March 15th.

A fairly good crowd attended the "social evening" at the Hall on Wednesday evening. Fourteen dollars was taken in at the door.
We are sorry to learn that Wm. Brown is on the sick list.
Miss Bertha Newbigging returned to her home at Chatham, after spending a week with friends here.
G. T. R. Agent Boughman has two students learning telegraphy.
Mr. Johnson, of Berlin, has been engaged to teach our school for the next term.

CAIRO.

Miss Beulah Sullivan, of Parkhill, who is visiting her former home, rendered a solo in the Presbyterian church here on the 17th, in her usual inspiring manner.
Messrs. Fansher and Moorehouse, township auditors, have begun their labors.

A debating society has been organized in this vicinity. Messrs. H. Annett and J. A. Barron are among those who have distinguished themselves by their mental capacity.
John Curran, who received the sad intelligence of the death of his brother Joseph, left immediately for Cass City, Mich., to attend the obsequies.
The familiar countenance of Chester Woods, who spent a few days in Sarnia, is again in our midst.
Reeve G. A. Annett left for Sarnia to attend county council.

WOMAN'S SOAP

WARDSVILLE.

Wardsville, Jan. 21.—The Royal Bank here is in charge of a new manager, Mr. Love, who has been transferred from Calendar. Mr. and Mrs. Love moved into their new home today.

Mr. B. Snell is spending a few days in Detroit and Port Huron with relatives.
The Women's Institute held a meeting in the Town Hall yesterday, when they completed arrangements for a banquet to be held in the hall on Friday, January 29.

J. Ellison won many prizes in his corn entries at the West Lorne, Windsor Fair.
Wardsville, Jan. 25.—The Canadian Order of Foresters gave an oyster supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Winger in honor of J. A. Jones and A. Gardiner, who are withdrawing from the Wardsville court and are going to Glencoe.

G. M. Pauls and J. D. McPherson spent a few days in London last week. Miss Mary McAlpine spent Sunday at her home in Appin.
The Presbyterian congregation will welcome their new pastor, Rev. James Malcolm, next Sunday morning. During the service the beautiful sacred duet, "The Lord is My Shepherd," will be sung by Miss F. O'Neill and W. Sheppard.

Are your corns harder to remove than those that others have had? Have they not had the same kind? Have they not been cured by using Holloway's Corn Cure? Try a bottle.

MACKSVILLE.

Macksville, Jan. 25.—Lemuel Black was confined to his bed on Friday last with an attack of influenza.

The many friends of Miss Christy Campbell are pleased to hear of her speedy recovery.
We are sorry to say that Harry Galbraith is on the sick list.
Albert Gates is drawing gravel from Glencoe for William Heatherington. Duncan Munroe moved the kitchen of the house which he purchased from Alex. Black. He intends to try the house again soon.
Silas Brown is very busy cutting feed and wood around here.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. J. Patterson is not improving very fast and was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital, London, for treatment.
Miss Enide Hudson was the guest of Mrs. Chas. Olde a few days last week.

KNAPDALE.

Knapsdale, Jan. 25.—Robert Gray and John Archer, of Shepherd, were visiting the former's mother last week. Circular saving bees are all the rage here.

Many friends in Knapsdale extend their heartfelt sympathy to the family of the late Duncan Campbell, of Appin.

David A. McDonald, of the Big Bend, called on his mother last week.
Reid Bros., of Bothwell, have a number of teams hauling logs from the farm of Hugh McIntyre here.

Mrs. Dan Hillman and son Plewis and Mrs. and son McKie attended the funeral of the late D. Campbell, of Appin.

APPIN.

The Appin Women's Institute will hold their winter meeting in the Orange Hall, Appin, on Friday, Feb. 5th, at 3 p. m. The speaker for that date will be Mrs. M. L. Woelard, of Toronto, and the subjects of discussion, and the addresses by Mrs. Woelard will be "Dressmaking" and "Domestic help problem." A full attendance of the members and their friends is looked for. Mrs. Woelard is a speaker well worth hearing, so ladies please do not miss a good opportunity.

Caradoc Convention.
Melbourne, Jan. 23.—A most delightful convention of the Caradoc Sabbath School Association was held in the Methodist church, Melbourne, on Friday, the 22nd inst. The attendance was large, and the papers and addresses excellent.

The morning session was devoted mostly to routine work of the convention, and receiving reports of the different departments. Lew. Beach in a kind, courteous way criticized some of the officers of the Association for neglecting to report. It was very apparent that the Association "expects every man to do his duty."

At the afternoon session Mr. Cawthorpe gave an excellent report of the Provincial convention. Miss Laide, of Toronto, spoke on "Eye-gate Teaching"; J. R. Littleproud, of Muncey Institute, on "Preparation of the Lesson"; and Dr. Rayson, of Delaware, on "Social Life in Rural Churches." Each address was of a very high order and received the hearty applause of a delighted audience.

It is to be hoped that the delegates present will earnestly seek to put into practice during the coming year many of the splendid suggestions offered.
Wm. Watson, of Mt. Carmel, was elected president, and Miss Jean Campbell, of Melbourne, secretary.
The next convention will be held in the Methodist church, Mt. Brydges. The ladies of Melbourne entertained the convention most royally, and the united choir of the village provided suitable music.

Orders for war material amounting to roughly $50,000,000 have already been distributed among 3,000 factories in Canada since the struggle began, and there is every indication that these orders will increase.
"If you get drunk, you get out," is the latest notification to soldiers training in Canada. Maj. Gen. Sam Hughes has instructed commanding officers to deal severely with offences against sobriety. Any man who wants to go to the front in Canadian uniform will have to lead a sober life until he gets on board the troopship.
