

Editorial Preface

THE contents of this little book have been collected and arranged under the direction of a committee of the Faculty Association composed as follows: Mr. R. H. Clark (Chairman), and Messrs. H. F. Angus, H. Ashton, H. T. Logan (Secretary), and W. N. Sage. The work of securing and editing the information has been done by Mr. S. M. Scott (Arts '21), Capt. L. A. Elliott, and Mr. A. F. Roberts (Arts '23), and to them the Faculty Association Committee are deeply grateful for their painstaking and unselfish labours. Expenses in connection with producing the publication have been borne by the University Board of Governors. Copies are being presented to each of those whose names appear in the book or, in the case of the fallen, to the next-of-kin.

It is the aim of the Record to include the names of all male members of Vancouver College, McGill University College both in Vancouver and Victoria, and of the University of British Columbia, who served with His Majesty's Forces or with any of the Allies or Associated Armies, and who either proceeded overseas or were sworn in for service abroad. The collegiate connection of each person in the Record is given after his name; both the institution to which he belonged and the years of attendance are shown. In the case of members still in the University, the date of their entry or appointment only is given. M.B.C. (McGill, British Columbia) indicates membership in either the Victoria or Vancouver College of McGill. In the case of graduates of the University of British Columbia, the dates of their degrees alone are shown; many of these had, of course, been students also in McGill, B. C.

The sources from which the materials were gathered are various. Records were supplied by the Registrar, carefully compiled during the war, and comprising the war service of members of the University up to the signing of the Armistice and of ex-students of McGill B. C. Further information was obtained by questionnaires sent to all male members of the University and to all ex-students of Vancouver College and the two British Columbia Colleges of McGill. An effort was put forward to make the Record complete down to and including the session 1923-24.
