

Flying without drugs

The university flying club is kicking off its 82/83 year with several major events. The first is the "I wanna be a pilot" ground school.

This "all about flying" course begins this Thursday at 7 PM in room 269 CAB. It is oriented towards people who have had an interest in flying but have never had an opportunity to pursue it. The flying course offers anyone the chance to take their first step toward obtaining a license, or to simply find out about flying.

Flying club President Ed Cremer recommends the course strongly: "This is the ideal chance that everyone should take advantage of." The course runs until the second week in December and costs $15.

Other upcoming events include a tour to the International Airport control tower and the fall flying event; a one day trip to the aviation entrance to the Rockies, Hinton, Jasper.

Several planes packed with thrill seekers will voyage from the municipal airport westbound. They will formation fly to their destination with non-pilot passengers acting as navigators. Flower bombing will test the accuracy of the pilot and passenger alike. The scenery is also spectacular.

The fly-in is on Sat. Oct. 16 and is open to all. For more information, contact Cathy Oyben, at 423-0323.
