S. R. C. COMES ACROSS

The S. R. C. stepped in last week to do something very tangible for Joe Student. It was tucked away in the corner of a routine report and we would like to give it due publicity.

For years, the $1.00 Max. price of dances reserved for cases when a particularly well-prepared and worthwhile dance is sponsored has been charged practically every Sat. night. The privilege has been abused too much on too many occasions.

Last week the S. R. C. called a halt to this abuse. RESULT: Full evening dance was set at 75c per couple and 50c per stag. After the game dance 35c.

HOME LIFE OF A FISH

(Contributed)

I had twelve bottles of whisky in my cellar and my wife told me to empty the contents of each and every bottle down the sink "or else." So I said I would, and proceeded with the unpleasant task.

I withdrew the cork from the first bottle and poured the contents down the sink with the exception of one glass, which I drank. I extracted the cork from the second bottle and did likewise, with the exception of one glass which I drank. I then withdrew the cork from the third bottle and emptied the good old booze down the sink, except a glass, which I drank. I pulled the cork from the fourth sink and poured the bottle down the glass, which I drank.

I pulled the bottle from the cork of the next and drank one sink out of it and poured the rest down the glass. I pulled the next cork out of my throat and poured the sink down the bottle and drank the glass. Then I corked the sink with the glass, bottled the drink and drank the pour.

When I had everything emptied I steadied the house with one hand and counted the bottles and corks and glasses with the other, which were twenty-nine. To be sure, I counted them again and when they came by I had seventy-four, and as the house came by I counted them again and finally I had all the houses and bottles and corks and glasses counted except one house and one bottle, which I drank.

HEH HEH...

Their cars having collided, Jock and Pat were surveying the situation. Jock offered Pat a drink from his bottle. Pat drank and Jock returned the bottle to his pocket.

"Thank ye," said Pat, "but aren't ye going to have a bit of a nip yourself?"

"Aye," replied Jock, "but not until the police have been here."

JUNIORS HIT JACKPOT!!... AGAIN!!

The Juniors came through this week with their second bang-up class party. Skipping details, we'd just like to mention that close to a hundred U. N. B.'ers had themselves another taste of what helps to make college worthwhile — a doggone "good time."

Food, Dancing, Skits, Cards, and a little organization can make for a heck of a fine evening in the Gymnasium Lounge (old drill hall.) The cost is less than the regular monotonous routine Saturday night dances and it's a heck of a lot more fun.

If any groups up to two hundred or so, want a chance to meet their class-mates and enjoy doing it — then get busy and put the bee on your class President.
