The York Debating Society

encourages all those who are interested in enhancing their public-speaking skills and in learning how to survive in the forum of parliamentary debate to come out and share their wisdom. Communication skills may be the difference between success and failure after you graduate. So come out, experienced or not, and learn how to make the walls of York reverberate with your oratory sublimity.

Weekly meetings are held on Monday in South 401 Ross room 4-7pm.
For more information call Royal at 667-1872 or drop by our office at 333 Student Centre.
