

Still looking for Buick challenge

Gerda Graf and Harvey Sadowick are one step away from retaining their Buick Challenge mixed doubles Mississauga playdowns title.

Graf and Sadowick defeated Helen and Karl Bauernhofer 7-5, 6-4 in the semi-final last week at the Fitness Institute.

For the Graf-Sadowick

duo, the semi-final was their hardest match of the tournament. "The calibre of play in the tournament wasn't as high as last year," said Sadowick.

"But it was fairly close against them (the Bauernhofers). They gave us the most competition."

Graf and Sadowick, of the Whiteoaks Tennis Club, have never lost to their clubmates, the Bauernhofers. The twosome will play Georgetown's Doreen Thomson and Gerry Peace in the playdown final August 25, 7 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Tennis Club in Georgetown.

MORRIS LAMONT/THE TIMES

Bird of happiness

"The game of the century" is how one unbiased observer described it, but it was only The Good Times Guys defeating The Mississauga News Few Stars 3-1 Sunday at Erin Mills South Common Park. The game, which was held to raise money for the South Common Community Centre, featured the antics of B.J. Birdy, the official mascot of Toronto Blue Jays. B.J. calls Dave Winer of The News out at second as Chris Zelkovich throws to first in an attempted double play. Mike Maloney led the victors with two doubles. Andy Stewart, Rick Drennan and Paul Eisner also had hits off loser Dave O'Brien. Ken Bellamy led The News attack with a triple and a double off winner Jim Holborough. The game raised over $500 which will go towards an electronic scoreboard for the baseball diamond at South Common Park.

McNabb throws no-hitter

Larry McNabb didn't allow a hit as Mississauga Royals blasted Streetsville 16-1 in Ontario Baseball Association midget play last week.

McNabb struck out 11 and added a double to the Royals attack. Joe Harris and Ken Savage also hit doubles Mark McCarthy, Granville Campbell, Carl Bent and Harris added singles.

Royals

Losing pitcher Theriault allowed seven hits.

In bantam, Royals blanked Streetsville 7-0. Danny Collis got the win.

Rich Andela hit two singles. Tony Gallucci, Bruce Lovelace, Gord Cruickshank and Jim McIntyre added one each.

Losing pitcher was Chroywerm. Jim Liberty had two singles for Streetsville. Chroywerm added a hit.

PEEWEE

Todd Gillard was a big man on the Computer Infonet Royals last week as they took two wins in Halton County peewee action.

Gillard led the hit parade in a 9-4 win over Milton with two singles and a double. Danny He had three RBI with a pair of singles and Bruce Wells came through with a single and a double. Winning pitcher Bruce Wells had two hits.

Neerlandia ties Petes 1-1

Neerlandia fell six minutes short of breaking Peterborough City's 11-game unbeaten record last Friday in Toronto and District First Division soccer action at Hansa field.

Neerlandia was one goal ahead with six minutes left in regulation time. Peterborough took advantage of some bad marking by Neerlandia's

John Van Wissen to tie the game 1-1 and take a point.

"We had four key players out. Ray Ellis (league's top scorer), Ian Simmons, Paul Giles and Luigi Boza, but we still played a good strong clean game," said Neerlandia coach Ray Cox. "We played much better than the last time we met Peterborough."

Neerlandia lost that game 2-1 by conceding a goal in the last two minutes.

Mark Pettit sped past the Peterborough defence to poke the ball home at the 12 minute mark in the first-half. It was Pettit's fourth goal of the season, but it wasn't enough against the only unbeaten team in the First Division.

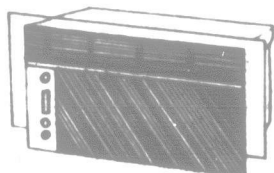

Neerlandia faces West Indies this Friday at Hansa field, kick off at 7 p.m.
