Ottawa 30th September, 1902.

With Cheques.

Sir,

Referring to your letter of the 23rd instant, I enclose herewith cheques Nos 1661 and 1661, as per pay list in payment of your own and Dr McDonald's salary for the present (September) quarter. The cheque in favour of Dr McDonald is made out for $25.00 not $27.00 the amount for which you have requisitioned, as the Department can only pay him the amount which is actually due to him. If the late Dr McKimmon made a will the amount due him will be paid to his estate, on the receipt of such information, and a properly certified voucher for $12.50.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.

J.R. McDonald, Esqr.,

Indian Agent,

Heartherton, N.S.
