Jan Masaryk Will Speak at Concert

A feature of wide interest of the program of the benefit concert to be given Thursday evening in the Technical School in aid of the Czechoslovak Red Cross in London will be an address by Mr. Jan Masaryk, Czech ambassador to London, who has been attending the International Labor Office conference in Washington and New York. Mr. Masaryk arrives Thursday from Chicago. Amongst those who will attend the concert of all Czech music presented by Czech artists will be the Princess Juliana of the Netherlands, accompanied by Mr. Van Tets, A.D.C., Madame Van Tets and Madame Roell.

A group of fourteen or fifteen girls in Czech costume will usher.
