

CONTENTS.

XV

PAGE

— An intractable Puppl. — His Marriage. — His Family. — His Campaigns. — Preparation for America. — His Associates. — Lévis, Bourlamaque, Bougainville. — Embarkation. — The Voyage. — Arrival. — Vaudreuil. — ~~Forces of Canada~~ — ~~Troops of the Line, Colony Troops, Militia, Indians~~ — The Military Situation. — Capture of Fort Bull. — Montcalm at Ticonderoga . . . 352

CHAPTER XII.

1756.

OSWEGO.

The new Campaign. — Untimely Change of Commanders. — Eclipse of Shirley. — Earl of Loudon. — Muster of Provincials. — New England Levies. — Winslow at Lake George. — Johnson and the Five Nations. — Bradstreet and his Boatmen. — Flight on the Onondaga. — Pestilence at Oswego. — Loudon and the Provincials. — New England Camps. — Army Chaplains. — A sudden Blow. — Montcalm attacks Oswego. — Its Fall 381

CHAPTER XIII.

1756, 1757.

PARTISAN WAR.

Failure of Shirley's Plan. — Causes. — Loudon and Shirley. — Close of the Campaign. — The Western Border. — Armstrong destroys Kittanning. — The Scouts of Lake George. — War Parties from Ticonderoga. — Robert Rogers. — The Rangers. — Their Hardihood and Daring. — Disputes as to Quarters of Troops. — Expedition of Rogers. — A Desperate Bush-fight. — Enterprize of Vaudreuil. — Rigaud attacks Fort William Henry 417

CHAPTER XIV.

1757.

MONTCALM AND VAUDREUIL.

Seat of War. — Social Life at Montreal — Familiar Correspondence of Montcalm. — His Employments. — His Impressions of Canada. — His Hospitalities. — Misunderstandings with the Governor. — Character of Vaudreuil. — His Accusations. — Frenchmen and Canadians. — Foibles of Montcalm. — The opening Campaign. — Doubts and Suspense. — Loudon's Plan. — His Character. — Fatal Delays. — Abortive Attempt against Louisbourg. — Disaster to the British Fleet 452