When I take the history of one poor When I take the history of one poor heart that simed and suffered, and represent to myself the struggles and temptations it has passed through, the brief pulsation of joy, the feverish inquietude of hope and fear, the pressure of want, the desertion of friends, x would fain leave the erring soul of my fellow-man with Him from whose hand it came.—Longfellow.

THE THOROUGHBRED.

There is an unwritten law for people who are thoroughbred—the real gentleman and the real lady—which compels them to keep their troubles their ailments, their sorrows, their worries, their losses, to themselves. There is a fine discipline in it. It mellows the character and sweetens the life. But when these things are not—borne heroically they mar the one—but when these things are not—borne heroically they mar—the character and leave their ugly traces in the face. Their hideous forms appear in the manner and disfigure the whole life.

ONE CATHOLIC VIEW OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE

The Catholic Church is generally held to be conservative. Of double interest, therefore, says Collier's, is argument upon woman's voting, nted in the Catholic Press, of Sydney, Australia, which says:

"As a mother she has a special interest in the legislation of her counterest in the legisl As a mother sne has a special interest in the legislation of her country, for upon it depends the welfare of her children. She knows what is good for them just as much as the father, and the unselfishness of maternity should make her interest even keener than that of man, who is naturally more self-absorbed. It is natural for every woman to look forward to the day when she will mold the future of young children, and she should deem, it one of the grandest privileges of her sex that she can now help to choose the men who will make the laws under which they must live, and exert her purer influence upon the political atmosphere of her time."

THE LACE BLOUSE.

A lace blouse to match the suit will be more in fashion this year than a plain white or ecru one. One does not have to dye the lace, as the shops offer the material in all the new colors. Green and brown, blue and violet, are among the colors, and the shades of these colors run the fashionable gamut.

The Chantilly patterns are very much in fashion, but the square, conventional filet designs are also popular. The liming is a China silk or soft pongee in the same shade as the lace.

We must have outside help for the present, or haul down the flag.

The generosity of the Catholic Public has enabled us to secure a valuable site for Church and Presbytery.

We have money in hand towards the cost of building, but the Bishop will not allow us to go into debt.

I am most grateful to those who have helped us and trust they will continue their charity.

To those who have not helped I would say:—For the sake of the Cause give something, if only a "little." It is easier and more pleasant to give than to beg. Speed the glad hour when I need no longer plead for a permanent. Home for the Blessed Sacrament.

Dear Father Gray.—You have duly accounted for the alms which you have received, and you have placed them securely in the names of Diocesan Trustees. Your efforts have gone far towards providing what is mecessary for the establishment of a permanent Mission at Fakenham. I authorise you to continue to solicit alms for this object until, in my judgment, it has been fully attained. Yours faithfully in Christ. Yours faithfully in Christ,
