TEN-PAYMENT

TWENTY-TWO YEAR

Aetna Endowment.

Policy No. 27,197, issued in 1866, on the life of Ignatius Cannon,
Commission Merchant, Cincinnati, O., and paid to him in 1888. Age 28. Annual Premium $143.96

Amount of Endowment .....	$2,000 00
Ten Premiums .....	$1,439 60
Less 22 Dividends .....	698 03
	$741 57
Net Gain .....	$1,258 43

On this Endowment the premiums were all paid during the first ten years. The $2,000 insurance was carried Twenty-Two Years, from age 28 to 50. A cash dividend was paid the insured each year during the whole period, and the $2,000 Endowment was paid him at the end of the twenty two years.

The cost, less dividends, during the twenty-two years was $741.57 for the $2,000 insurance and endowment, or $100 for each $269.15 paid him by the AETNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

For twenty-year Endowments in the Aetna Life, payable at death, or end of term if living, the annual premium (payable for only Ten Years, and diminished by 20 annual Cash Dividends) is as follows: Entering at age 20, $68.16; age 25, $68.70; age 30, $69.43; age 35, $70.47; age 40, $72.14; age 45, $75.06; age 50, $79.67.

ENDOWMENT INSURANCE.

The main business of life is to make a living. Man's first duty is to provide for himself and family.

The best way ever devised to make this provision certain is by Endowment insurance.

AETNA Endowments participate in the profits, which are paid annually in cash, or applied in payment of premiums.

They are non-forfeiting and indisputable after three years.

AS INSURANCE, they are paid at once if death occurs before the Endowment matures.

AS AN INVESTMENT, they are better and more profitable than Government bonds, savings banks, or other first-class securities.

FOR SATISFACTION, they are unequalled; they turn uncertainties into certainties. The holder constantly enjoys the knowledge that he is providing a fund of money for himself at a certain age, which can not be diverted by any other person; and which will certainly be delivered to him or his assigns if living at the specified time, or to his family immediately in case of his previous death.
