

MM. Adhemar et Delisle present their very humble respects to Lord Sydney and beg of his Lordship the favour of knowing whether it will be agreeable that they should have the honour of waiting upon him, Tuesday next, at eleven of the clock in the morning to take his advice respecting a particular address which they are to deliver to His Majesty according to directions and desires of the most eminent citizens of the nobility and other Canadian subjects in the province of Quebec, whom have subscribed to the same ; and if his lordship finds it convenient that the said Adhemar and Delisle should be the same pay presented to the King under his patronage they will keep themselves in readiness to that effect.

London, Quebec House,
March 20, 1784.

Lord Sydney presents his compliments to Messrs Adhemar and Delisle, and shall be glad to see them on Tuesday next, at half an hour after eleven at White Hall.

Saturday, 20th March, 1784.

N. B.—We attended the very day and hour we saw Mr Nepeane who read us a letter from Lord Sydney to him by which it appeared that his Lordship was sick with a cold and busy with General Carleton.

And we, at his request, left in writing our desire of obtaining leave to take with us to Canada Messrs. Duchesne, Gambier et Aubert, three young secular Teachers for the Seminary of Quebec, also, three young priests from St-Sulpice for the Seminary of Montreal. He sent us the following answer :
