

DREAMS.—An inquest was recently held at Englefield green, on the body of a labourer, who was found dead. The deceased had been employed in a garden at Egham-hill, adjoining Mr. Adam's dwelling, and was desired by Miss Adams, about half-past twelve, not to go to dinner, for her mother had something warm to give him for his dinner, as he had complained of being unwell for a few days previous. At one o'clock she called him two or three times, but received no answer, and conceiving he had left the premises, she took no further notice of it until about eight in the evening, when she requested a neighbour to accompany her over the premises to find him, in which they were unsuccessful. Miss Adams that night dreamt that she should find him dead at the bottom of the garden, and on going to the spot on Sunday morning, this proved to be the case. She told the coroner and jury, as well as Mr. Lancaster, constable of Egham, that the only inducement she had in going to that part of the premises on Sunday morning was from her dream. Verdict—"Apoplexy."—English Paper.

TUITION IN VOCAL MUSIC.

THE SUBSCRIBER, having made arrangements to give instruction in Singing, to the Youth who attend Mr. Cross's School, in the basement story of the Methodist Chapel, Brunswick street, proposes to receive some additional pupils to be instructed at the same time.

Attention has been strongly directed to Vocal Music, in large communities of late years—and it has been insisted on, that it should be made a part of general education.

Good authority on this subject, and who have had ample opportunity of testing their opinions, have asserted, that all young persons possess singing powers,—that singing improves the voice in speaking and reading,—that it conduces to health,—that it is a valuable aid to devotional feeling, and to the mental and moral powers,—and that it is calculated to have beneficial effects on social order and happiness.

It will be readily admitted, that if singing has such good results, and if ALL MAY be taught WITH SUCCESS, that ALL SHOULD be taught.

The Subscriber proposes beside a School in Brunswick street to open a more private class, should a sufficient number of pupils apply, at his residence in Bedford Row.

For the former class, time of attendance 4 o'clock, on Saturday evenings, terms five shillings a quarter, half in advance; particulars respecting the latter made known on application.

THE METHODIST MINISTRY DEFENDED; or, a Reply to the Arguments, in favour of the Divine Institution and uninterrupted succession of Episcopacy, as being essential to a true Church and a scriptural Ministry; stated in a letter to the Author, by the Rev. Charles J. Shreve, Rector of Guysborough;—in a series of letters, addressed to that Reverend Gentleman,

BY ALEXANDER W. McLEOD.

Although Mr. McL. makes larger concessions in some respect to the Church of England than we feel at all inclined to grant, we think he most conclusively refutes the idle and ungrounded pretence to superiority, which, in common with the Church of Rome, many of her communion are making over other denominations that are her equals or superiors in purity of doctrine and practice.
