USE YOUR EYES

There was a story I read when I was a boy called "Eyes and No eyes." It concerned two lads who went out on a walk one day. When they came home they were asked what they had seen. One answered "Nothing at all."

But the second had seen a number of things. He had seen the rooks building their nests, weaving the sticks in and out together. He had seen a squirrel up a pine, busy picking off the bark and throwing it down. He had seen a wood-pecker running up an oak, tapping at the bark, to find where a worm was hidden. He had seen a mole burrowing in a field; and straw-mice under a hedge.

He had found a scarlet "Jews' ear" among some dead sticks, and a white hyacinth; and in the pond a lot of frog spawn. He had seen the little crimson flowers bursting on the larch, which children call "straw baskets;" and he had found a butterfly just creeping out of its case, in which it had lain as dead.

"Eyes," had seen and taken interest in a thousand things all along his way as he walked; but "No-eyes" had seen nothing of interest at all.

That is, one boy used his talent of sight, and the other had not used it. So is it with Grace, to enable us to see and to help us to walk, in the Spiritual Kingdom. God gives us Grace, but we must use it, and if we use it, He will give us more Grace.

No soul can preserve the bloom and delicacy of its existence without lonely musings and silent prayer, and the greatness of this necessity is in proportion to the greatness of the soul.
