THE TARIFF QUESTION

Last year the tariff revenue that went into the Dominion treasury was $61,000,000; the tariff revenue that went into the pockets of the protected manufacturers was nearly $200,000,000. If the tariff were to be abolished and the people compelled individually to contribute to the manufacturers the tariff burden could then be clearly understood. The manufacturers are marshalling all their forces at Ottawa and have prepared to spend a lot of money in a desperate fight to prevent any reduction. The big farmers' delegation on December 16 should be able to convince our Ottawa members that they have been representing special privilege long enough and should now represent THE PEOPLE.
