CLERKS SHOT DEAD
 BY TWO ROBBERS

Refused to Put Up Their Hands When Commanded to Do So.

[Canadian Press Despatch]
 GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 19.— Two robbers, with drawn revolvers entered the jewelry store of J. J.
 Thompson here early last night, commanded the clerks to throw up their hands, and when they refused, opened fire. John A. Thompson and Ed. Smith fell dead, and Paul Townsend was probably fatally wounded.
 The bandits escaped.

The three victims were alone in the store when the robbers entered.
 Townsend, who was taken to a local hospital, was able to tell the authorities only a few words concerning the tragedy.
 The clerks were placing watches and jewels in their cases for the night when the men, masked, entered and demanded that Townsend, the watch repairer, throw up his hands.
 Townsend, who was taken to a local hospital with the men and was shot down.
 A bullet penetrated his neck. He believes that the other employees then rushed to his aid and were killed.

The jewelry store is almost in the heart of the business district and pedestrians passed by while the robbers were within. One person informed the police that he heard three shots fired. Policemen nearby also were attracted by the shooting, but the robbers fled before they arrived. No description of the bandits could be secured at a late hour last night.

Mimic Swiss Warfare.
 GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept. 19.— An interesting program of mimic warfare above the clouds, was brought to an end to-day by 600 mountaineers forming part of the Alpine section of the Swiss army, who have been manoeuvring for some days among the highest peaks of the Alps.

The final movement in the plan of campaign was an attack on an imaginary enemy in occupation of the Eggishorn, a mountain 9,625 feet high.
 The battalion of 600 mountaineers descended from the Jungfrau Joch, 11, 140 feet high, where they had bivouacked in the snow throughout the night. They experienced a forced march across the great and perilous Aletsch glaciers during a driving snow storm without the loss of a single man from fatigue, and concluded the splendid feat by storming the Eggishorn Heights.

Woman's Institute At Echo Place

The first regular meeting of the Echo Place Woman's Institute took place at the home of Mrs. H. E. Craddock, Hamilton Road, on Thursday, with the president, Mrs. J. J. Burke, in the chair.

Thirty-eight members responded to roll call.

Mrs. J. Norrie, of the Cainsville institute read a very interesting paper on Canadian Women. She said that Canadian women both of the past and present, were 'on a par' with women of other nations, all over the world.

In the realm of literature, in the business world, in the circles of music, drama and art, at the head of organizations, and moral reform schemes, and also in sports. But the great and prominent sphere for woman is the home. Canada, as a nation, could not stand if all its women, or even a majority of its women were merely great authors, great artists.

Mrs. (Dr.) Devereaux, rendered a piano solo which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Falconer, then gave a paper on the secret of perpetual youth. The speaker advised all ladies to have a hobby. Let it be music, literature, needle-work or the garden, by all means have a hobby. Mrs. Harry Quille, then delighted the audience with a song, "My Heart is Where the Heather Blooms," and Mrs. Frank Smith, recited most humorously, "Counting Eggs."
 Mrs. Reese, president of the Cains-ville Institute, was also present and gave many helpful suggestions.
 The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Edmondson, Hamilton Road, on the third Thursday of October.

WHERE MANITOBA'S SNAKES HIBERNATE

A loathsome, wriggling, gleaming mass of viperous reptiles, the quantity of reptiles within a certain cavern of a boulder-strewn gullyside, in Southern Manitoba is difficult of estimation.

Within the district of Clearwater, in Southern Manitoba, are located a series of ravines, presumably formed by an ancient river of importance in prehistoric days. Deep and rugged hills-sides bound them, not a few of which can be likened to canyons; devoid of vegetation, save a sprinkling of scrub oak, and a species of juniper.
 The Cyress, a fair-sized stream, meanders through the valley. At a distance of one-half mile from the village adjacent to the high trestle bridge, Clearwater, exists the cavern wherein snakehood possesses a hibernating retreat. A few residents of the surrounding countryside, have witnessed the reptilian conglomera-tion; a greater number evince no intention of undertaking the visit.

Springtime Visit to the Snakes My visit to the snakes was made on a bright day in Spring, the snows of winter, outside of a few sheltered nooks, having melted beneath the glowing sunshine of the western prairie-land.

Out on the hillside, several of the more venturesome members of the viperous mass are noticed, crawling
