WORLD OF SPORT

LACROSSE

The Brantford-Tecumseh game, which was held here yesterday was postponed until next Friday on account of the rain. The Brantford boys were here in full strength and it was a disappointment all around.
The game on Friday will be a good one and should receive extra good support as the Chatham management lost considerable through having no game.

WALLACEBURG 5, BUGLE BAND 1.

The Bugle Band Lacrosse team met defeat at Wallaceburg yesterday afternoon by a score of five goals to one. The Bugle Band team scored the first goal but after that, didn't seem to be in the game very much.
The rain, of course, came down now and then but didn't stop the play although it made it bad for the players.It was just a case of senior players against intermediates with the natural consequences.
There is not much to be said of the game. The score tells it all.

BOWLING

The annual bowling tournament, held by the Chatham Lawn Bowling Club, was commenced yesterday, but it was not completed owing to the heavy rainfall.There were lots of bowlers here, including two from Walkerville, three from Blenheim, three from Dresden, one from Bothwell, two from London and five from Chatham. Although these ranks were bowling all the time, none of the events were completed. In the Sutherland trophy Skip Webb was cleaning up everything. He now has to play with Walkerville and Ridge-town in the finals and if he wins these games his rank gets the trophy.
The tournament will be concluded next Wednesday or Thursday.

Impressive Scene when Teachers and Pupils of McKeough School Paid Tribute to Departing Esteemed ColleagueOn Thursday afternoon the pupils and teachers of McKeough School paid a farewell tribute to Miss Minnie Samson, the esteemed and popular young lady who is resigning her position on the teaching staff prior to her departure for Toronto.Few members of her profession have met with the exceptional success that has throughout characterized the efforts of this accomplished young lady. Possessed of much talent and ability, Miss Samson has also the happy faculty of winning the confidence, affection and loyalty of the students—which has been evidenced from year to year in the striking results achieved. She has commanded with the universal admiration and esteem of her principal and colleagues and of the members of the School Board and Inspectors.It was exceedingly fitting and appropriate that the young folks of Miss Samson's graduation class should, on the eve of the holidays, desire to give some expression to their feelings of love and gratitude, and the last afternoon of school was chosen for this occasion.On behalf of the class Miss Samson was presented with a beautiful fountain pen and the following expressive message:—"Dear Miss Samson:— We are sorry to know that you are leaving our school, but we hope that the change will be for your advancement, and we know that, where-ever you are, you will still take an interest in us.Please accept the pen to remind you of your last class in McKeough School.

"MABEL HANDYSIDE.

"BAROLD NORTON.

"McKeough School, Chatham, Ont."

Miss Samson was completely taken by surprise, and in a few feeling and appropriate words acknowledged the reminiscence.A few moments later the principal, Miss Esther Abram, placed in Miss Samson's hands an envelope containing a little jeweled pin, a memento from her staff of teaching colleagues, including ex-Principal Jas.
Brackin, with whom she co-operated so successfully when he presided over the school.It was intended that there should have been a few short addresses in connection with the occasion, expressive of the esteem and affection in which the young lady was held, but, after all, it was a greater tribute to Miss Samson that, when the time came, no one felt able to express the feelings of the gathering and the silent hand-clasp was more eloquently expressive.The departure of Miss Samson will be a distinct loss to the Maple City, where she is held in such universal high regard and deserved popularity, and she will be accompanied in her departure by the best wishes and heartily God-speed of scores of loyal friends.
