

THE ACADIAN

R. PRAT

Beans and Chopped Feed in bags, Choice Flour and Oatmeal. Old P. E. I. Oats, 50c bushel, at R. PRAT'S.

Local and Provincial.

Thanksgiving Day next Thursday. The ACADIAN will be sent till the end of 1886 for $1.00.

The cushions in the gallery of the Baptist church, which had been taken out to be repaired, were replaced last week.

FOR SALE.—One pair three-year-old steers and one yearling heifer. Apply to C. A. Patriquin. 2-17

We would direct attention to the new timber of the W. & A. R. in another column. The changes though slight are important.

On our third page to-day will be found a striking and instructive illustration of the comparative worth of the various kinds of laking powders now in the market.

On account of the violent storm of last Friday and Saturday, which interrupted the services of the Presbyterian church, there was no service there last Sunday. We have been requested to say that the church is now ready and that divine services will be held there (D. V.) next Sabbath at the usual hour.

SNOW.—We were visited on Saturday last by the first snow-storm of the season, and it should be a warning to people to get ready for winter. The day was very disagreeable and the snow fell thick and fast while a cold north-easterly wind prevailed. Fortunately it melted as fast as it fell, and only left muddy roads.

Vanity Fair, Old Judge, Little Beauty, No. 1 Cadet, Cigarettes, at Shaw's Barber Shop. 9-17

CARD.—We, the undersigned, beg leave to thank those gentlemen, who, by their kind and generous contributions, have made the late fire, on the morning of the 5th of November, less a calamity than it otherwise would have been. Among them were Messrs J. F. Herbin, watchmaker, Joseph Jones, John Stuart, and many others. James Wilson, Thomas Kelly.

REAL ESTATE CHANGES.—Mr J. E. Palmer has purchased the farm formerly occupied by the late Wm. McDonald, at Grand Pré, and intending making it his home.—Mr Newton Franklin, of Grand Pré, has sold his farm to Mr Lewis Messinger, of Falmouth.—Mr I. N. Caldwell, of Gasperau, has sold a part of his farm to Mr J. L. Gertrude, of same place.

WANTED.—One thousand yards Sheeps' Gray All-wool Homeston must be clean and soft wool, and well woven. Caldwell & Murray, Wolfville, Sep. 29, '85. 17

We had a call on Monday from Mr Armstrong, of Kingston, who is traveling for a very interesting book entitled "The History of the North West Rebellion." The book is written by C. P. Mulroney, A. M., M. D., and from the prospectus we should say it was well worthy of a place in every home. We wish Mr Armstrong every success and hope his book may meet with a large sale.

We notice that new steps have been put at the entrance to Music Hall and not to seem, as the old ones were becoming dangerous. The new ones are neat and substantial, and are, we believe, warranted to last twenty-five years. Mr Witter seems determined to make the hall comfortable and has gone to a large expense during the past year in fitting it up. We hope he will be well repaid by a large patronage.

An official of the Baptist church having very severely reprimanded some of the students for misconduct last Sunday morning, was in the evening blessed from his entering the door of the church until he took his seat. After service he was also escorted home by a large number groaning and hissing. The students claim there was no misconduct. It is a new game and we won't attempt to umpire it as we are not familiar with the rules.

COUNTY COURT.—The following docket appeared for trial at the sitting of the county court on Tuesday morning, Judge Blanchard presiding:—

SUMMARY AND APPEAL. 1, Borden vs Brown; 2, Forsyth vs Dunkerton; 3, Pray vs Cook. DECLARATION. 1, Western Assurance Co. vs Dickie; 2, Pinos vs Hancock; 3, McBride vs Ward; 4, Marston vs Spittal; 5, Doherty vs Davison et al.

Local and Provincial.

See our special offer to send the ACADIAN and Detroit Free Press for four months for 40 cents.

We have not heard anything lately of the movement to light the streets. Something ought to be done in the matter as it is very disagreeable these dark nights to have the streets dark.

Smile the "TWINN," the best specimen ever in town, at Shaw's Barber Shop. 9-17

Hallow's eve passed off without more disturbance than a few fires being put down and gates moved. This is not very bad, yet, while we like a little fun, we don't like to see property destroyed.

S. JOHN'S CHURCH.—There will be a celebration of Holy Communion at 8 a. m. At evening prayer a sermon will be preached on "The Life and Character of Abraham." All persons are welcome. R. W. Huggell, Curate.

PICTURE YARNS.—Oxford Grey, Cardinal and Navy Blue at 2-11 Caldwell & Murray's.

A fire broke out in the double-house just east of Old Mill's Hall yesterday morning about 4 o'clock, and before it could be checked the whole row, as far as Wilson's harness shop, was destroyed. These buildings have been a disgrace for some time and the town is well rid of them. The roof of Munro's factory was on fire one time, but was fortunately discovered and extinguished without injury to the building.

PLEASE NOTICE.—Caldwell and Murray have lately received some very pretty Ladies' Boots and Shoes, viz.: Ladies' Fine Lace, The and Button Kid Shoes, Fur-top, Wood-lined Slippers, Felt House Boots, Pebb Calf Lace Boots, French Kid, French Oil Goat. Guts—Fine evening wear in Polish Calf Congress, Kid Lace Shoes, Fancy Slippers, &c. 2-17

COLT SALE.—J. I. Brown has sold to C. W. Tremblin, of Grand Pré, his very fine filly "Nana B." bred by "Confidential Charlie." We look forward for this filly to make a very large and valuable mare, as she weighed 512 lb. at five months' old. It will be well for any lover of good stock to call and see her. We have not learned the price but believe it to be a good one, as Mr Brown is a man that never likes to give a good coat away.

TAKE NOTICE.—If your tax is in arrear, take it to J. M. Shaw's Barber Shop, and he will put it in first-class order for the small sum of 15c. 10-17

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The fall and winter term of the public schools opened on Monday of this week. The schools open with a full attendance and are under most favorable auspices. No grading has been done this fall. The only change in teachers is in the preparatory department, in which Miss Agnes McLeod, of F. Wick, takes the place of Miss Parsons. The other departments remain under the efficient care of Mr Bishop, in the advanced, and Miss McKen, in the primary. Both teachers and scholars find the rooms much pleasanter and healthier since the repairs and improvements of the summer, and a most successful term is anticipated.

All persons indebted to the estate of Frank J. Brown, or to the late firm of F. L. Brown & Co., Wolfville, are hereby notified that all amounts due the estate that remain unpaid on November 9th next will be placed in a lawyer's hands for collection. JNO. W. DEWOLF, Assignee Estate F. L. Brown, Wolfville, Oct. 30, '85. 21

A cough or cold taken between now and Christmas frequently lasts all winter. This certainly the case with people who have weak lungs. The most convenient, reliable and inexpensive remedy is Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. It is to be used internally and externally.

PUBLIC BUILDING.—Work has commenced on the new public building. A number of men will be employed cutting stone, most of which will be got on Chapel Hill, and in that vicinity. Mr. Trean, one of the contractors is now here making arrangements.—North Sydney Herald.

The staging has been taken down from the new Custom house, so that the building looks more finished. The windows are in and they are getting along well with plastering. Munton and Truro are quite jealous of Amherst for having much the best looking public building.—Maritime Sentinel.

—On Friday morning last a serious accident occurred at the West Mines of the company's work at Acadia Mines, by which a young man named McInnes was seriously injured. The small ore car used in No. 5 level, are drawn to the top of an incline by a horse, and are thus lowered by means of a wire rope attached to a drum. This morning, owing to the recent heavy rains, the rails were wet and greasy, the cars got too much way on them, and could not be stopped before going over the incline, down which they ran at high rate of speed carrying the horse with them. Reaching the bottom, they passed through a small shed used as a dumping place, and finally wrecked themselves on the track. McInnes, whose duty it was to dump the contents of the cars, was knocked down and seriously injured. The horse, a valuable animal, was so badly cut up, that its recovery is extremely doubtful.

COMPARATIVE WORTH OF BAKING POWDERS.

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS

As to Purity and Wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder. "I have tested a package of Royal Baking Powder, which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances. "It is a scientific fact that the Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure. "H. A. MORT, Ph.D."

"I have examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the market. I find it entirely free from alum, terra alba, or any other injurious substance. "I have analyzed a package of Royal Baking Powder. The materials of which it is composed are pure and wholesome. "S. DANA HAYES, State Assayer, Mass."

The Royal Baking Powder received the highest award over all competitors at the Vienna World's Exposition, 1873; at the Centennial, Philadelphia, 1876; at the American Institute, New York, and at State Fairs throughout the country. No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and universal endorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists, and Boards of Health all over the world.

ROYAL.—The above DIAGRAM illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by Prof. Scheller. A pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth by Prof. Scheller only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that, while it costs a few cents per pound more than ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, and, besides, affords the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair-minded person of these facts.

"While the diagram shows some of the alum powders to be of a higher degree of strength than other powders ranked below them, it is not to be taken as indicating that they have any value. All alum powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous."
