THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., APRIL 7, 1893.

Local and Provincial.

Firemen's regular monthly meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in their room.

Mr. C. Pury Heales left on Wednesday morning for Boston en route for Winnipeg. We wish him every success in his new home in the west.

The Yarmouth S. S. Co's. steamers commence this week to make four trips each way between Boston and Yarmouth. For days of sailing see advertisement in another column.

A full stock Fishing Tackle expected daily at the Wolfville Bookstore.

We had a pleasant call on Monday from W. L. Bars, Esq., of Halifax, who spent the Easter holidays in Wolfville. Mr. Bars takes a keen interest in the affairs of his native town and made several suggestions of progress which will be referred to later on.

In their third appearance before a Wolfville audience the Fisk Jubilee Singers on Friday evening last fully maintained their high reputation and delighted all who were present. This company is one of the very best that has ever visited Wolfville and those who missed hearing them on Friday evening made a mistake.

Some time ago we asked subscribers to arrears to be good enough to hand in the amounts due. We wish to thank the few that have done so, and must request that those who have not do so at once. We need money. Will not trust subscribers in arrears call and settle promptly, and those at a distance remit to the amount due.

Let's of new cheap Room Paper at the Wolfville Bookstore.

The latest journalistic aspirant for public favor comes from Dartmouth. The Atlantic Weekly made its first appearance on Saturday last. It is a 28 column paper printed on an excellent quality of paper from new type and presents an attractive appearance. The first issue is well filled with interesting matter. The ACADIAN wishes the new venture an abundant success.

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

The Rector regrets very much the disappointment of Easter Day. He desires, to compensate, as far as is possible for that disappointment by taking the Easter Festival on the octave of the Easter Festival. He therefore announces that on Sunday next, April 9th, he will (D. V.) make the following services in St. John's church: 8 A. M., holy communion; 11 A. M., morning prayers, sermon and holy communion; 7 P. M., evening prayer and sermon. The sermon will be on the resurrection of our Lord.

Etha A. Burdige, a Turner, employed at J. A. Sewell & Co's., dropped dead while on his way to work this morning. He leaves a wife and six children living at 56 Sidney St., Cambridgeport. Burial of a blood vessel in vicinity of his heart was the cause of death.—Boston Globe, Mar. 27.

The above was a son of Henry Burdige, of Lower Canada, and was formerly employed here as turner in the Ideal Manufacturing Co.

J. Edw. Heales is spent for the celebration "Whitworth," "Humber" and "Spartan" Cycles. Call and see samples or write for prices.

J. W. Digelow, Esq., has laid on our table a very neatly printed pamphlet on "Profits and Cost of Fruit Growing in Nova Scotia." The work is edited by R. C. Parker, Esq., secretary of the Fruit Growers' Association and is replete with facts and figures. We understand that 10,000 copies of this pamphlet have been issued and will be distributed where they will do the most good to our Province. A large number will be sent to Chicago for distribution at the World's Fair. The Fruit Growers' Association and its energetic president and secretary are doing a good work for Nova Scotia and should have the hearty support of our people generally in their efforts to further the welfare of our Province.

Our Vegetable Worm Syrup is warranted by us to be effective, safe, and very pleasant to the taste. Drug-store.

Mr R. E. Harris, of the firm of Harris & Harvey, has taken the Cramp place and moved in last week.

Mrs Alexander MacKenzie, wife of the late ex-premier of Canada, died on Thursday, March 30th, at Toronto.

The supplementary estimates of the federal government include a grant of $800 for repairs on Pickett's Wharf.

For coughs and hoarseness Pulmonic Balm is ahead of everything. Drug-store.

Messrs Prat & Collins have opened an office over F. J. Porter's store, where those indebted to them are requested to call and settle.

Master Ross M. Shaw, of Waterville, is first with mayflowers again this year. He has our best thanks for a fragrant bouquet received this week.

The "Raleigh" is the leading Bicycle of the day. Rockwell & Co., agents.

Mr Joseph G. Reid of Gasperau, sells a quantity of farming stock and household furniture at his late premises on Thursday of next week. See adv.

We understand Mr Walter Brown is making preparations to build on the lot next Wood's blacksmith shop. A quantity of the material is now on the ground.

If you want a Cycle get the best. "Whitworth," "Humber" and "Spartan" lead. J. Edw. Heales, agent.

No good blood is made by the Dyspeptic. K. D. C. makes good blood by restoring the stomach to healthy action. Ask your druggist for it.

We learn that E. Sidney Crawley, Esq., has been appointed adjutant magistrate for the town of Wolfville. The commission, dated March 30th, has been received, and the appointment will probably be gazetted this week.

We learn that owing to continued ill-health J. L. Gertrude, Esq., of Gasperau, has been compelled to resign his seat in the Municipal Council as representative for Ward VII. The election to fill the vacancy will be held on the 24th, inst.

Don't wait till spring is past before trying K. D. C. It cleanses and heals the stomach, invigorates and tones the system. No other tonic needed. Take it now.

We would direct the attention of our readers to the announcement of Messrs Harris & Harvey in another place. These gentlemen have bought out the firm of Prat & Collins and took charge on Monday of this week. The ACADIAN gives them a welcome to our town and asks for them a liberal share of the public patronage.

Call and see "Ed." He has something to tell you about the "Whitworth," "Humber" and "Spartan" Cycles. J. Edw. Heales, agent.

The members of the Methodist congregation at Avonport, gave their minister, Rev. Mr Hockin, a donation at the hall on Wednesday evening. There was a good attendance and a pleasant evening was spent. A good programme of music, readings, &c, was rendered and a purse of $21.00 was given Mr Hockin, which considering the small number comprising the congregation is very creditable.

Ward off Spring diseases by taking K. D. C. It restores the stomach to healthy action, a healthy stomach tones the system. Try K. D. C.

The Division contest was finished last Monday evening by Capt. Curry's side giving a very quiet entertainment with one very spicy paper on the contest. Capt. Faulkner was victorious with the round sum of 800 points. The officers were duly installed and the Division is in a fair way to go along very smoothly now.

The Salvation Army is holding meetings on Long Island, but the weather has been somewhat unfavorable for the people from this side attending them.

The sacred concert that was given in Chalmers' church last Thursday, was a decided success. There was a good audience and everything passed off quietly. All the young men were present and gave the best of attention. The speeches were made by Rev. Mr King, Dr Chipman, Rev. F. H. Wright and Mr Green. Mr King gave a short and witty address on music. Dr Chipman was well pleased with the concert and the organ, and was more pleased because all the singers and the player were from among ourselves. Mr Wright congratulated the Presbyterians on having such a fine concert and such good singers. Mr Green thought the performers should have a vote of thanks from the congregation. There was a good collection in aid of the S. S. library. The programme was as follows:

Quartette, "Sing, Oh Heavens." Prayer. Quartette, "Silently the Shades of Eve." Scriptural Reading. Chorus, "Wake, Isles of the South." Organ and Violin, "Nearer, my God, to Thee" (variations). Solo with Violin Obligato, "Only Tired." By Miss Smith. "Guide Me." Solo and Chorus. Solo by Miss Faulkner. Duet, "I've been Redeemed." Bass Solo and Chorus, "Kind Words." Solo by Mr S. Cox. Mr King, Chorus, "Jerusalem my Glorious Home." Duet, "I know that my Redeemer lives." Duet and Quartette, "Gentle Gales." Duet, Solo and Quartette, "Raise me, Jesus." Organ and Violin, "Chant du Paysan." Solo with Violin Obligato, "Where is Heaven." By Miss Smith.

Speeches. Quartette, "Rest from your labors." Organ and Violin, "Old Hundred" (Var). Benediction. March—Organ and Violin, "Wacht am Rhein." The singers were Mrs F. J. Faulkner, soprano; Miss A. Stewart, alto; Mr Geo. Cox, Tenor; and Mr Simonds Cox, Bass. Miss Smith was organist. The violin was played by Miss Stewart. Mrs King and Christie sang "I've been Redeemed." Miss Peal and Lulu Tremblay sang "I know that my Redeemer lives."

The Dominion government has increased the subsidy for the Yarmouth steamers to $20,000. Efforts are being made to obtain from the N. B. government a subsidy of at least $10,000.
