Rev. Mr. Donkin will exchange pulpits next Sunday morning with Rev. Mr. Spittal of Gasperau.

Mr. L. W. Sleep has much improved the appearance of his store and buildings by the application of a fresh coat of paint.

Lottery.—A bunch of Keys. Finder will be rewarded at Union Bank.

Dr. DeWitt is making arrangements for the erection of a new barn to take the place of the one recently destroyed by fire.

The grounds of the Baptist church are being improved in appearance this week. The walks have been laid out and the grounds generally are being much beautified.

A first-class Bicycle of last year's make—only in use part of season. Will be sold at a very low figure. Apply to R. W. Frouns.

An addition is being built to the east end of the Acadia Dairy to provide for a new boiler room. We understand a new steam plant, of an improved make, is to be put in shortly.

BIKE SUNDRIES! Full line at Wolfville Book Store.

On Friday evening of next week the students of Acadia Seminary are to give an exhibition of physical culture exercises in College Hall. The programme will be a most interesting one, and those who attend will spend a pleasant evening.

Rev. Dr. Trotter will preach in St. Andrew's church next Sunday morning and evening. The pulpit will be filled up the following Sunday by Rev. Prof. Chamber, of Pine Hill College, Halifax, and on the 28th by Rev. J. S. Carruthers, New Glasgow.

Montaigne Gas Bicycle Lamps! See them at Wolfville Book Store.

There is a considerable improvement in the appearance of Highland avenue, owing to the property of Prof. Haley being widened and graded.

Madame Ramsdell is now at the Royal Hotel for a few days only, where she will be pleased to attend to Ladies' and Children's Shampooing. Full line of hair goods, and orders taken will be promptly attended to. Special attention should be called to her wonderful hair restorative and tonic, The Dandruff Cure.

Ladies! Call and see the Wheels we are selling for $39 and $49. Both fully guaranteed. Wolfville Drugstore.

The Dominion Atlantic Railway company has decided to offer a free trip through the provinces taking in Yarmouth, Annapolis, Halifax and St. John, to the person sending in the largest number of names of persons (or their parents) now living in New England and who have gone from the maritime provinces during the last ten years.

Do you know that you can buy Room Paper cheaper at Wolfville Book Store than at any other place?

The vestry of the Baptist church will be open on Saturday afternoon from four to five o'clock, and the Mission Band of "Willing Helpers" will be there to provide a short entertainment and ice cream for those who may be present.

The programme will begin at four o'clock, after which the ice cream will be served. Entertainment, and ice cream with cake, ten cents. Proceeds for Foreign Missions in India.

MISS WASTED.—Highest market prices paid for hides at the Willow-Vale Tannery, Wolfville.

COLLEGE HALL was well filled last Friday evening on the occasion of the last session of the course being given by the students and pupils of Acadia Seminary. The programme consisted of sketches and songs from "David Copperfield" and was an exceedingly well arranged and interesting one, reflecting great credit on Miss Hall, the efficient class teacher. Two parts were all well attended and showed careful preparation and much native talent.

FOR HIRE.—One Cargo Springhill and one of the Season of the Willow-Vale Tannery, Wolfville.

Personal Mention.

[Contributions to this department will be gladly received.]
W. L. Bares, Esq., of Halifax, has been in town this week.

Miss Ruby Card, of the ACADIAN staff, is visiting her home at Billtown.

Mr. William Chipman is spending a few weeks in Bridgetown, his former home.

Miss Muriel Haley, of St. John, is the guest of Prof. and Mrs. Haley for a few weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Caldwell left on Wednesday for Ottawa, where she will spend the summer with Mr. Caldwell.

Dr. W. D. Harris arrived home from Baltimore on Saturday last. He will spend a short time in Wolfville, before entering upon the practice of medicine.

Mr. James Pender, of Halifax, arrived in Wolfville last week and will spend the summer here. The many friends whom he made last summer while here will be glad to welcome him again.

Mrs. J. S. Morse, who has been spending the winter in Montreal at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Donoh, returned to Wolfville last Saturday. She is accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Hilda Duell.

We learn that Dr. Austin K. deBlais has resigned the presidency of Sbertoff College, at Alton, Ill., which he has filled for the past five years, and accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Baptist church at Elgin in the same state. Dr. deBlais has many warm friends in this, his native town, who are always glad to hear of his success.

TO LET.—The Shop now occupied by E. B. Shaw. Possession given about May 1st.
O. A. PATRIQUIN.

I wish to express my hearty and sincere thanks to the friends, students and citizens of Wolfville, for their very energetic and timely aid in rescuing my property from the flames on the afternoon of the 27th of April. I wish to make special mention of Mr. Edwards, who received an injury while protecting my buildings, and also of the students, who, although under no obligations of citizenship, yet rendered the most valuable assistance.

(signed) W. J. BALCOM.

A CARD.
