

Local News and Personal Items

Lightning killed a horse at Kingsclear on Saturday.

Merchants, advertise and show your faith in the business outlook!

C. H. Taylor has to rent three desirable tenements all in first repair.

Mrs. H. Y. Tommy and children left on Saturday for a visit in St. John.

Needles for graphophones may be secured at the store of Viollette, the jeweler.

Engraved visiting cards of the highest grade may be obtained at ordinary prices through The Observer office.

The W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 7:45 with Mrs. Henry Bradley. A good attendance is requested.

Wanted to buy at Sayre's store Hartland, three or four thousand bushels of good oats for which the highest cash price will be paid.

The editor is always glad to have readers contribute items of news. To insure insertion all items should be left at the office on Tuesday.

After several weeks vacation and rest Miss Emma Cogswell has re-engaged as clerk with H. R. Nixon. Her numerous friends are pleased to see her in her familiar place.

Herbert Aiton, always bearing a genial smile, grins broadly since Monday because of a bright baby girl which arrived at his home that day.

Mrs. W. B. Dickinson, her son Orrin, and Mrs. Charles Carr, of Upper Brighton, have returned after a visit with relatives in Boston and Lowell.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hatfield, A. W. Kyle, Mrs. J. W. Montgomery and Miss Lide Reid motored to Woodstock to hear Major Guthrie speak.

New styles in sweaters for all the family; sheep lined coats and vests, heavy work pants, good values in all at McLauchlan's. Woolens are advancing. Buy now and save money.

The Potato Products Co. began operating at Woodstock yesterday. They manufacture not only potato flour but prepare turnips and other vegetables for making into condensed and canned foods.

Miss Annie E. Billings of Butte City, Montana, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. George McCrea of Bannock, will leave for the west to-day taking her mother with her. Mrs. McCrea is in poor health and the Doctor has advised a change, hoping it will do her good.

For two Sundays there has been no preaching service in the United Baptist church owing to the fact of the pastor being engaged with special meetings at Pembroke. His efforts there are bearing fruit and that community is being blessed with a thorough spiritual revival.

On Sunday, Nov. 14, special harvest thanksgiving services will be held in Burr's hall, the rector, Rev. N. Franchette, preaching sermons morning and evening appropriate to the occasion. There will be the usual harvest decorations and the usual welcome to visitors.

The two months old daughter of Mrs. Trainor of St. Stephen passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. M. White, Mainstream, on Sunday, Oct. 24. Much sympathy is felt for the mother in her bereavement. Services conducted by Rev. P. J. Quigg of Peel using for text, Isaiah 49 and 15. Interment in Rockland cemetery.

On Oct. 25 John Ross, a well known resident of Coldstream, passed peacefully away after an illness of five weeks. He was in the 83rd year of his age. Funeral services were conducted at the house by Rev. P. J. Quigg of Peel using scripture found in Revelations 3 and 21. Interment in Coldstream cemetery.

The chicken supper given under the auspices of the Red Cross Society on Friday was a delightful affair. All of the many who attended gave the women much praise for the excellent repast and the manner in which it was served. The band enlivened the occasion with numerous appropriate selections. The proceeds amounted to $123, making a total of $329 that the Red Cross raised in eight days.

M. L. Hayward was in Bath on professional business on Monday.

A. D. Colwell was in Bath on Monday in the interests of The Observer.

The best chocolates in this town are sold at Nixon's. Ask for Moirs.

Mrs. Robert Blackie was visiting Woodstock friends several days last week.

Winter suits in many qualities of fabrics—suits for men, boys and children, at moderate prices, at McLauchlan's.

Miss Ada Hagerman returned to Lewiston on Tuesday, after spending several months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hagerman.

It will pay those who have not yet subscribed for "The Observer" to do so if only to read of the bargains being offered weekly at Carr's—see his "ad", third page.

Mrs. J. T. G. Carr left on Monday for a visit in St. John, where she will also represent the Methodist Sunday school at the provincial convention. Others to go for this purpose were Clyde Rideout and Miss Clara Hagerman, from the U. B. school.

On Sunday, Nov. 7, Rev. Geo. A. Ross of East Florenceville will conduct service and preach at Lansdowne at 3 p. m. and in the Methodist church at Hartland at 7:30. Many people will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this gifted speaker and former pastor.

Tomorrow (Thursday) evening there will be a meeting of the Board of Trade with the object of discussing town incorporation and the booming of the town through newspaper and other publicity. Every man who is progressive and who believes in a greater Hartland should be there.

A thunder storm, evidently having become detached from summer, has been wandering around for two weeks, making its presence known in various parts of the province almost daily. Last evening it passed over Carleton and a portion of Victoria county. The lightning was exceedingly vivid and the thunder heavy.

Ladies will delight in seeing the handsome and ultra-stylish samples of winter coats and suits now on display at McLauchlan's. These are made to measure, and the orders should be left early. These handsomely tailored garments are wonderful values. McLauchlan's have, also, a wide range of ladies' coats, every one new this fall, and every one supreme value, worth now really more than the prices asked. Woolens are advancing rapidly. Buy now.

Glidden's stable, an old land mark that has escaped numerous big fires, now owned by Arthur F. Glidden, was almost completely destroyed by fire, which broke out at 10 o'clock on Sunday night in the hay mow from some unknown cause. All the horses, harness and wagons were removed. Mr. Glidden carried an insurance of $2,000 on the building and $1000 on the stock. The night was free from wind which helped in saving the Victoria hotel, Salvation Army citadel and adjoining buildings.—Woodstock Press.

Produce Prices

Local dealers on Wednesday were paying the following prices for county produce:

Butter.....	25 to 28
Eggs.....	25 to 30
Potatoes.....	1.75
Chickens.....	.12
Dressed Pork.....	.10
Oats.....	.40
Hay.....	13.50

Lieut. W. B. Shaw Back From War

The first of "our boys" to return from the thick of battle is Lieut. W. B. Shaw, who arrived yesterday, making glad the hearts of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Shaw. He intends remaining with his parents until the middle of the month recruiting his health after nine months active service and two attacks of appendicitis. He has so far escaped German shot and shell, at times, however, by a hairsbreadth.

Lieut. Shaw was born in Hart-and upwards of 30 years ago. Early in his twenties he went to British Columbia where he soon joined an artillery corps. He was among the first to enlist and has been seeing active service in France since February.

Many are hoping for the privilege of hearing the stalwart young officer recount some of his experiences and it is not unlikely that some arrangement will be made to this end before he leaves. He will go to British Columbia about Nov. 15 to look after some business interests, and intends returning to the front as soon as his health will permit.

Victoria School Examination

The following are the results of the Victoria School Examination for the month of September arranged in order:

Grade I—Roy Haywood 90, Harry Albright 82, Neta York 75.
Grade II—John Albright 85, Charles York 70, George Cook 70.
Grade III—Basil Hoyt 88, Frank Boyer 87, Mary Birmingham 83, Arthur Kearney 80, Madlene Oliver 78, Sadie Cook 63.
Grade IV—Anna Murray 76, Sadie Haywood 76, Ralph York 65, Della Baker 65, Israel Boyer 65.

Grade V—Kathleen Albright 89, Helen Oliver 87, Pearl Albright 83, Charles Kearney 76, Mildred Cook 76, Hope Somers 72, Albert Boyer 60.

Those having a perfect attendance for August and September are: Hope Somers, Frank Boyer, Charles Kearney, Albert Boyer. Ruby Page, Teacher.

Edward Caldwell Marries, then Enlists

On Saturday evening at the home of Chester Parlee, Bath, Edward A. Caldwell, son of T. W. Caldwell of Florenceville, was united in marriage with Miss Gertrude, daughter of Mrs. G. H. Campbell of Lansdowne. Rev. M. H. Manuel performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives. Mr. Caldwell expects to leave next week to enlist for overseas service. His brother, Paul, left with the second contingent. On Sunday Mr. Caldwell was presented with a pocket Bible at the close of the service at Greenfield, Rev. M. H. Manuel expressing with the gift the felicitations of the congregation and wishing him a safe return to his bride.

Shell Burst Near Lt. Col. W. C. Good

In a recent letter to his wife, now residing in St. John, Lieutenant-Colonel W. C. Good, formerly of Woodstock, and now in charge of the remount depot in Hantot, France, tells of a narrow escape he had from death. While at the front with a lot of remounts, a shell burst within a few feet of him, killing four men, but he escaped uninjured. The letter was written at the time the preparations were being made for the offensive movement and he said they had been able to get almost no sleep on account of the terrific noise of the big guns bombarding the trenches of the enemy.

Business As Usual

Come early and bring plenty of cash. The shop is open from 7.30 a. m. to 7.30 p. m.

Every Day

except Saturday, and that day till 8 at night

J. E. DONKIN

Hartland Department Store

John T. G. Carr, Proprietor

The following goods are lower in price than they were a short time ago:

Flour, Oatmeal, Sugar, Puffed Wheat, Bran, Middlings, Molassine Meal, Cracked and Whole Corn, Smoked Herrings and Codfish.

Get our prices before buying.

We have just received our first shipment of this season's Canned Goods, and offer for SATURDAY, 6th inst.:

3 Cans Sugar Corn
3 Cans Standard Peas
3 Cans String Beans
2 Cans Tomatoes

For $1.00

No other combination and only one dollar's worth to each customer at this price, Saturday only. Take advantage of this offer, as prices will advance later.

Produce taken in exchange for goods

Packed Butter, 25c to 27c; in 1 lb. bricks, 25c

Clean Fresh Eggs, 30c; Oats, 35-40c

B. W. Meal, $2.25 to $2.50

John T. G. Carr

Now Corner Main and Depot Streets

Hello!

WHERE WERE YOU

When I called yesterday?

I Was at NIXON'S

—he's doing business as usual, and, my word for it, his new fall and winter goods look good to me. Considering the advance in prices in general, HIS prices seem to be all right.

Palmer-McLellan Shoe Pacs

which wear like iron and never rip

Gum Rubbers in all sizes

New Rubbers for men, women, children

Heavy Work Shoes, Elegant Dress Shoes, Ladies' Shoes in Gun and Patent with the stylish cloth tops, in different shades, so popular right now.

Yes, and Nixon's got a big stock of

Heavy Socks and Mittens

that are elegant goods at low prices. Oh, yes, I never go to Nixon's without bringing away some of the SPECIAL TEA and some Moir's Chocolates.

H. R. NIXON - The Expert Shoe Man and Popular Family Grocer