CANTERBURY STATION.
The Best Act-Manager Practice-Per-

CANTERBURY STATION, Feb. 6. Mrs. and Miss Allison, of Nova Scotia, are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. Warfield, of Westmorland Co., is the guest of her son Rev. C. A. S.
Warfield.

The weather for the past week has been bright, clear, and cold. May the whole month of February be as pleasant as the first few days were. The snow storm, which commenced Saturday, turned out to be a very light one. Sunday was mild with a gentle rain falling all day.

In anticipation of liquor inspector Howe's visit, a number of young men tried to rid the village of liquor last Saturday. More Scott Act is needed in this place.

Our young people seem to be enjoying a "round" of surprise parties. At an early hour last Tuesday evening they presented themselves at the residence of our esteemed friends Mr. and Mrs. J. W.
Dickinson, where a most enjoyable evening was passed.

Mr. Humphrey Price has returned from Maine. He says the snow is quite deep and the weather has been extremely cold.

Mr. Jarvis Law has a large class in bookkeeping which meets three evenings in the week.

HARTLAND, C. C.
Wednesday, Feb. 7th. - Setting a New Mill.
HARTLAND, Feb. 6th. One of the most happy events of the New Year took place in our quiet village on Saturday last, the 4th inst. It was the marriage of Mr. Manser Thornton, formerly of Southampton, to Miss Annie Orr, of this place.
The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. A. Trafton, after which the many friends of the contracting parties assembled in the dining-rooms of the River side hotel to partake of a bountiful reception.

Alex. Shaw has got the frame and lumber out for his steam mill, which will go up in the spring. Part of the machinery has arrived with more to follow. The engine and boiler come from Robt & Sons, of Aulherst, N. B., and is 180 horse power, which will be sufficient for all purposes.

CORK SETTLEMENT.
Death of a Eminent Resident - The Cork Settlement, York Co., Feb. 3. I regret to announce the death of Mr. John Sullivan, merchant of Cork Settlement, which event occurred at his residence on Sunday evening, leaving a wife and two children to mourn their loss.
Deceased was held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.
He was a man of good enterprise and was thoroughly interested in matters pertaining to the advancement of education in this district until he was taken down a few months ago with cerebral congestion, which resulted in his death, aged 43 years. The school was closed and other business suspended, denoting respect for the funeral of deceased which was held Monday and was very largely attended.

HARVEY STATION.
Death of a Eminent Resident - Wednesday, Feb. 7th. - Personal News.
Harvey Station, Feb. 6. It becomes my duty to chronicle the death on Sunday, 29th ult., of one of the most respected citizens of Manners Sutton, Mr.
John Sullivan, who for many years followed the occupation of merchant at Cork crossing. He also kept the post office, and in his life and business was known as an honest and upright man.
He was about 44 years of age, and leaves a wife and two sons, who have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

The tolling of the death bell and the joyous chime which announce marriage are often heard together, so it is a pleasure to state that Miss Maggie Hurley, of Cork, and Mr. Daniel O'Brien, of the same place, were married on the 18th of January. They have the best wishes of all for their success.

Among the cotillages, who paid us a visiting party the past week were:- Scott Act Inspector Howe, of Stanley; Mr. Cutting, potato buyer, of Boston, J.
Leslie Smith, teacher of Queen's and David Brown, trackmaster, N. B. R. Mr.
Fraser, merchant, of Upper Prince William, brought a team load of butter here on Saturday and shipped it to foreign markets. Thus, Coburn also sent away a large quantity.

Our blacksmith, Mr. Donahoe, besides his work of putting up sleds and punge, is also looking out for summer, as he is preparing a large number of wagons.
His wagon "take the cake" for durability and light draft.

Miss Emma Little is very sick with congestion of the lungs.

CAMPBELL SETTLEMENT.
Our Correspondent, who seems to be a "Young Lady," writes from the Camp Settlement, Jan. 28. News is rather scarce just now, but perhaps a few years ago, which we were lucky enough to hear the other day, might be acceptable. The young ladies of Fudgetown (not a thousand miles from here), seem to have got ahead of the young ladies of other places we hear from. One evening not long ago Miss Sally Shanks (a tall and angular beauty, called on Miss Ruth Spiggins, her best chum, and began a conversation somewhat in this style:- "I say Ruth, didn't yer think about this here year bein' leap year? Well now, Sally, I declare I didn't, isn't that too too awfully immense! You see Ruth I have a grand plan and we will keep it all to ourselves and get a long ways ahead of the other girls. Do tell, quick, Sally,
