WEDDING BELLS.

Pretty Wedding in St. James' Church.

THURSDAY EVENING.

Mr. Arthur Bliss Copp, M. P. P. and Bessie Margaret Bell, Married.

The marriage of Miss Bessie Margaret Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell of this town, and Mr. Arthur Bliss Copp, M. P. P., barrister of Sackville took place in St. James' Presbyterian church last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

The church was elaborately decorated for the occasion by the ladies of the congregation, with whom Miss Bell was very popular. One of the most striking attractions being a massive floral bell suspended from the ceiling, and under which the happy couple took their places while the ceremony was being performed. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Annett, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Atkinson.

The bride was dressed in cream white satin, with chiffon and applique trimmings, with bridal veil and orange blossom, and carried a magnificent shower bouquet of roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Annie Bell, sister of the bride. She was attired in biscuit colored crepe de sole, over pink tulle, with point lace, panne velvet trimmings, and black picture hat, and pink shower bouquet.

The groom was supported by the Honourable Francis J. Sweeney, of Moncton, who is one of Mr. Copp's colleagues in the Legislature from Westmorland County.

The ushers were Charles W. Fawcett, of Sackville; G. G. Stohart, of Newcastle, and C. H. Bell, brother of the bride.

As the bride entered the church on the arm of her father proceeded by the ushers and the bridesmaid, the choir, of which Miss Bell has been a valuable member, sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The ceremony was one of the most beautiful of the Presbyterian church, and was very impressive. The choir rendered appropriate music as the service proceeded.

After the ceremony was concluded the procession of the fair bride and handsome groom, the bridesmaid, groomsman and ushers was a beautiful picture indeed, and left the church to the strains of the wedding march and the joyous peals of the church bell.

"AT HOME"

A very pleasant "At Home" was held at the residence of the bride's parents, where the happy couple was serenaded by the band, which rendered a choice programme of music and who were thanked by the happy groom in a few well chosen words and generously remembered. The luncheon served was very recherche and at the conclusion of which the health of the happy couple was proposed by the groomsman, and fittingly responded to by the groom.

The bride and groom left on the Maritime express on a honeymoon trip including Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Murray Bay, and other points of interest, accompanied by the good wishes of hosts of friends and showers of rice. The bride's going away gown was of blue ebeline with trimmings of velvet tulle and white broad cloth, with stylish white felt hat. A very large number of excellent and costly gifts and presents were received, the groom's present to the bride being a substar of pearls, and to the bridesmaid a crescent of pearls to the groomsman and ushers he gave souvenir cigar pins.

Newcastle has had many beautiful and interesting weddings, but none of which exceeded in splendor and interest that which took place last evening at the Presbyterian Church, which was packed to the doors to witness the ceremony.

Previous to the marriage the groom was tendered a complimentary luncheon at Newcastle by a number of his friends. The spread was gotten up by "mine host" McKeen of the Waverly Hotel. Among those present were Hon. Mr. Sweeney, member of the New Brunswick Government; Messrs. Morrison and Morrissey, members of provincial legislature; Messrs. Fish and Park, ex-M. P.'s; Lieutenant Colonel Maltby, Messrs. Ryan and Fawcett, of Sackville, Messrs. Bell, Stohart and a number of others.

The first toast honored was that of "His Majesty King Edward" and was responded to by all singing "God Save the King."

"The guest of the evening 'Mr. Copp' was next proposed, in a few chosen remarks by Hon. Mr. Sweeney, and was honored by all present singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow." This toast was well and ably answered by Mr. Copp.

"The Provincial Government" was proposed which Mr. Sweeney replied in a few happy remarks.

"The Provincial Legislature" was then proposed by Mr. Ryan, and brought able responses from Messrs. Morrison and Morrissey.

"The Civil Service" was then proposed by the chairman and responded to in a witty speech by Mr. Park.

LORD SALISBURY.

King Edward's Tribute to Deceased.

London, Aug. 22.—Lord Salisbury died peacefully at 9 o'clock tonight. During the last twenty-four hours the end was seen to be inevitable, the great frame of England's statesman and diplomat only by the constant and oxygen supply a frail faltering effort to keep up from the valley to the mountain station quietly breathes his life.

Lord Salisbury had been warned of this afternoon by telegraph that the end was near. All the members of his family had gathered for the last time. The village of Hatfield was filled with anxious residents from the town and the village. The word came when a heavy servant dashed down the gravelled roadway saying as he passed "the Lord is dead."

Viscount Chamberlain, who now assumed the title of Marquis of Salisbury, immediately notified King Edward and Queen Alexandra, the Prince and Princess of Wales and others, including Lord E. Cecil, the son-in-law of Lord Salisbury, who was the only child of the marquis deceased from the deathbed.

The death of Lord Salisbury occurred on the 29th anniversary of his entrance into public life as a member of the House of Commons.

The ex-premier, though retired from public life, was an important figure in many public ways. He was a warden of the Cinque ports, high steward of Westminster, and chancelor of Oxford University. His death places an order of Knight of the Garter at the disposal of King Edward.

Harfield, Eng., Aug. 23.—It is understood that Lord Salisbury recently expressed a wish to be buried beside his wife at Hatfield. A proposal will undoubtedly be made to bury him in Westminster Abbey, but this will be declined by the relatives, in accordance with his last wishes.

KING EDWARD'S TRIBUTE.

London, Aug. 23.—King Edward's tribute to the deceased Marquis of Salisbury is given in the court circular tonight, dated Monday, Sunday. It is as follows:

"The King has received with profound regret the news of the death of the Marquis of Salisbury and his Majesty deeply deprecates the loss of so great a statesman, whose invaluable services to Queen Victoria, to the King and his country in the highest offices of state will be remembered for many years, will ever dwell in the memory of his fellow countrymen."

Messages of condolence are pouring in at Hatfield House. The eulogies include King Edward and Queen Alexandra, the Queen of Portugal and President Loubet.

Touching references were made to the dead statesman in the pulpits of almost all the churches in the United Kingdom.

The funeral has been provisionally fixed for the end of this week to enable Lord Edward Cecil, who is on his way home from Egypt, to be present.

Increased Coal Shipments.

The shipment of coal from the PORT HOOD COAL MINES for the month of July was 11,292 tons, as compared with 4,600 tons in the same month last year. Total out from 1st. of July to 1st. of Aug. was 46,756 tons, an increase of 29,825 over the same period last season. The increasing demand for this coal is an especial feature of the coal trade at present.

"Canada's Militia" by the chairman brought Lieutenant Colonel Maltby to his feet, and he paid a tribute to Canada's Militia, and the good work they had done for the Motherland in South Africa. Mr. Copp then proposed "The Ladies" which toast was championed by Messrs. Stohart, Fawcett and Bell.

Mr. Park then proposed "The Commercial Interests" and coupled the name of Mr. Ryan who, in replying, made the speech of the evening.

"Our Host" brought Mr. McKeen of the Waverly to his feet in a very sensible and able speech.

The proceedings were then closed by all hands rising, joining hands and singing Auld Lang Syne.

It is needless to say that in the town of Newcastle Mr. Copp is as popular and well liked as he is in his native county.

AT SACKVILLE.

About a dozen of the friends of A. B. Copp, M. P. P., entertained him to supper at the Club house, Silver Lake, Sackville, last Friday night. F. B. Black acted as chairman, and in a few well chosen remarks presented Mr. Copp with a handsome meerschaum pipe. Toasts were drunk to the guest of the evening, to the ladies, to the benedicts and to the prospective Mrs. Copp. The occasion was a particularly enjoyable one.

of the leading commercial and professional men of Halifax, Amherst, Kentville, Wolfville, Pictou, North Sydney, Sackville, Chatham, Charlottetown, West Prince, South, Kings and Soudis. Counter attractions, including the Montreal congress, reduced the attendance. The delegates were welcomed by Premier Evers and Mayor Vanburen on behalf of the province and city respectively.
