

MINOR CASES WERE MANY.

No Less Than 21 on the Police Court Roster.

North End Men Accused of Doing a Hold-Up.

Women Accosted on Street, But Accused Men Acquitted.

At Police Court this morning there were 21 cases on the list, of which two were of using indecent language, one of vag and the rest drunk and drunk and disorderly.

John Simonds, 12 Burlington street, and A. K. Hagarty were charged with using indecent language to Mrs. Reiger and Mrs. Hamburg on Friday night last. Through J. L. Counsell they pleaded not guilty.

Simonds was called and stated that he was waiting for some friends at the corner mentioned when the two ladies came along and were accosted by two men, whom he did not know, and who were very drunk. He was not with the men, and did not know them. The way Hagarty was mixed up he did not know. He met Hagarty at the corner of Barton and James streets, and the ladies, when they saw him, said that Hagarty was one of the men who insulted them.

Hagarty swore he knew nothing about the case and that he did not know what he was accused of when the ladies told the constable to take his name. The Magistrate said he would dismiss the case, but he thought Simonds knew more of it than he told.

Pat Savage was a visitor in town for the week end, and stayed over till today, at the request of Constable Campbell, and at the request of the Magistrate is likely to stay a month longer. Pat went into the Savoy Theatre on Saturday night, laboring under the delusion that it was a restaurant, but was ejected when he attempted to give an order to one of the ushers. Pat then wandered farther and asked Constable Duffy to lend him a ham sandwich. Still later he was in front of a cigar store begging tobacco, and that was when the constable decided that Pat was fit to occupy a cell. Pat got off his story about a speedy return to Brantford, but the Magistrate would have none of it, and told him he would have to pay $10 to go to jail for one month.

Sam Humphrey, 212 Burlington street east, and Frank Trainor, 126 Macaulay street east, were arrested on Saturday afternoon by Constable James Clark on a charge of being drunk and disorderly in the rear of the constable's house. Clark said he watched these two and another man in the alley for some time. They were trying to persuade the other man to take a drink from a bottle, but he was refusing. He saw them attempt to go through his pockets and take a tie pin from him, so he arrested them. The prisoners indignantly denied that they "ruled" the stranger, and asked for a chance to bring witnesses and a lawyer, and the case was laid over till the morning.

Joe Mulvale, Toronto, had 'em, when arrested on Saturday by Constable Barrett. The constable said that Mulvale was dodging secret service men, who were invisible to all but himself. He was fined $3.

James Webster, 53 Hunter street east, and Dave Simpson, same address, were arrested for fighting on Saturday night by P. C. Jas. Clark, and were fined $3 each when they pleaded guilty this morning.

Levi Hope, a redskin, King street east, called a colored man a black rascal at the Radin Station, and was fined $3. William Hempock, 30 Sydney street, got drunk and abused his wife on Saturday night, and for this was fined $10 or 21 days.

Sandy Turkey, Caledonia, created a disturbance on King street east, and was fined $3.

TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

Miss Lulu Colver left this morning for Toronto to enter upon her university course.

Spent an enjoyable evening on roller skates with a band concert thrown in at the Alexandra rink.

St. Paul's Church Young People's Society will hold its annual open meeting and election this evening.

Magistrate Jelfs issued a summons against R. Harper this morning, at the instance of E. Tracey, on a charge of assault.

Mr. George S. Kerr, of the law firm of Kerr & Thomson, has returned from his vacation. While away he visited New York, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and many other places.

Dr. James and Mrs. White, Cannon street west, have returned home from the coast, where they have been spending an enjoyable vacation. The doctor will resume his practise immediately.

Mrs. J. H. Barley (nee Gay of Toronto), will receive for the first time since her marriage on Thursday afternoon and evening, Oct. 3, at her home, 25 Slater street, and afterwards on the first and third Thursday of each month.

Mrs. S. Burnside Russell will hold her post-nuptial reception on Thursday afternoon and evening and Friday afternoon, Oct. 3 and 4, at her home, 40 Ray street south, and on the afternoons of Thursday and Friday, Oct. 10 and 11.

The Knapp roller boat, which created such interest in Toronto several years ago, but which proved a dismal failure, broke for the first time on Saturday and was carried by the wind against the Turbina, damaging the latter slightly.

The corner stone of the new Annet Street Methodist Church, Toronto, of which Rev. Dr. Hazlewood, formerly of Wesley Church, this city, is pastor, was laid on Saturday, Rev. T. E. Egerton Shore, also former Wesley pastor, officiated and Rev. Dr. Wilson assisted.

In the Sunday Church parade of the Thirtieth Regiment the new bell attachment for drummers was quite noticeable. It has a good appearance and a pleasing effect with the bugle parts. This is the first drum corp in Canada to adopt the idea; it originated with Drum-Sergt. J. Martin, of the 13th.

The action of Bell vs. Goodman, which was on the list for the coming week, has been struck off, as a settlement has been arranged. The action arose over the failure to buy land on agreement. Kerr & Thomson, for the defendants, and Lees, Hobson & Stephens for the plaintiffs.

The Ontario Gazette announces the incorporation of the Producers' Natural Gas Company, of this city; capital $100,000; also the Dumedin Limited, navigation and Transportation Company, $100,000, and the Britannia Amusement Company, $40,000. The last mentioned is erecting a roller rink on Britannia Park survey.

Rev. Gore Barrow, who recently resigned the curacy of Christ's Church Cathedral to accept an invitation to Toronto, preached in All Saints' Church yesterday, in the absence of the rector, Dean Forneret, who was at the Cathedral with his regiment, the Thirtieth. Rev. Mr. Barrow preached an impressive sermon on "Faith and Prayer."

More new hats at Waugh's, men's furnishings, post-office opposite. Specials in men's underwear, fifty cents, at Waugh's. Specials in colored shirts, fifty, seventy-five and one dollar at Waugh's.

The new steamer of the fire department was given a try-out at 6 o'clock this morning at the corner of King and James streets, to see if it was capable of throwing a stream over the Bank of Hamilton building. All expectations were justified, as three streams at once, 1-inch, 1 1/4-inch and 1 1/2-inch respectively, were thrown about twenty feet higher than the Bank.

The South Bend, Indiana, Tribune of Tuesday, Sept. 24, had the following: Attorney and Mrs. Charles Kreighbaum, of this city, with their guests, Thomas Keller and Mrs. Richard Crooks, of Hamilton, Ont., were entertained this afternoon at the Country Club by Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace Keller, of Mishawaka, followed by a 6.30 o'clock dinner at the latter's home, 910 East Second street.

A good many complaints have been made by persons from the southeast part of the city in regard to the service given by the Hamilton Street Railway Company from the race track. Instead of sending a number of the new cars up Sherman avenue and along King street, the cars are sent direct to the corner of King and James streets. Here the east end passengers have to get out, to find the regular east cars crowded.

THE WEATHER.

FORECASTS—Fresh northwest to west winds; fair and cool to-day and on Tuesday; light local frosts at night.

The disturbance which passed over the lake region of Saturday is now situated off the Nova Scotia coast, attended by heavy gales. High pressure covers the lake region and the North Pacific States and in British Columbia. Heavy rain has fallen in Ontario and the Maritime Provinces, and light showers have occurred in Quebec. The weather is becoming warmer in the western provinces after heavy frosts on Saturday night.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Forecasts: Eastern States and Northern New York: Partly cloudy to-night, preceded by rain in north portion. Tuesday, fair; fresh west winds. Western New York: Partly cloudy to-night and Tuesday. The following is the temperature as registered at Parke & Parke's drug store: 9 a. m., 53; 12 noon, 58; 2 p. m., 60. Lowest at 24 hours, 43; highest, 60.
