But I do profess to make the best of the very decidedly best, FANNING MILLS made on the Island. JOHN SMITH, 1st Jan.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN: IT is not without much diffidence that I comply with the Request which I have had the honor to receive, inviting me to offer myself as a Candidate for this District. A call from such a large number of intelligent and respected Electors, and comprising the names of so many friends whose opinions I highly value, is one which I think I ought to accede to; and I only regret that my humble abilities to discharge the duties of a Representative of the people are far short of what are to be desired, especially at a crisis like the present, when one of the fundamental principles of a System of Government, which the British people supposed was guaranteed to us by the Mother Country, has been openly violated by the act of a partisan Governor.

To the Electors of Charlottetown and the Royalty.

GENTLEMEN: HIS Excellency the Lieut. Governor, having on his own Responsibility, and in my opinion contrary to the fundamental principles of self or contrary Government, dissolved the House of Assembly, you are now for the third time, within the short period of eleven months, called upon to elect Members to represent you in the Legislature. I again respectfully offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages.

To the Independent Electors of the Third District of Queen's County.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW COLONISTS—YOUR late faithful representative, Benjamin Day Esq., having declined to stand as a Candidate to represent you at the ensuing Election of members for the representation of your district, I have subsequently been induced by flattering proffers of support from many of you, and the assured interests of Mr. Davies also, to accept of your elective franchise, and to stand as a Candidate for your suffrages, in the independent use of the new elective franchise privilege, which you are called upon to exercise on the 20th instant.

But I do profess to make the best of the very decidedly best, FANNING MILLS made on the Island. JOHN SMITH, 1st Jan.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN: AT the earnest request of a considerable number of you, I am again induced to offer myself as a Candidate for you to suffer at the ensuing Election. During the short time I had the honor to present you, the House of Assembly and Government have had to contend with all the evils and conspiracies, to bring about overthrow. We have had no chance, no play—having a one-sided partisan Governor, an obstructive Legislative Council to contend during the whole Session. Responsible Government no longer exists in Prince Edward Is. The first blow was struck by Mr. Coles's very introduction, by appointing Capt. Swi to a seat in the two Councils, without the necessary qualifications required by the Instructions, and giving him a lucrative office, and had he not been so struck by Mr. Coles; in retaining Mr. Joy Hensley, as Attorney General, and getting appointed to a seat in the Legislative Council; of which he had offered himself as a candidate for the People for their suffrages and had also been rejected. The finishing stroke was given by the Governor, acting on an assumed prerogative, and refusing to be guided by his responsible advisers, preferring the advice of the irresponsible Legislative Council, and dissolving the House of Assembly, in direct opposition to those whose counsel he had followed, and the Government—he was bound to receive; and the Governor's conduct is to be a precedent for future guidance, we have retrograded at least a century at three strides, and are about to cringe again under the iron bondage of a Responsible Government. I think I hear many of you say, "No! We will not submit to that. Our fathers suffered too much to induce us to condescend to such a course." If such are your sentiments, you can give proof of them by dissolving the Government, and you have brought this upon you. They hypocritically tell you, that you will have the privilege of electing your own officers; while, at the same time, it is notorious, that a great effort is being made by them, to put nearly all the principal offices into the hands of the Legislative Council, who are not responsible to you; three of whom, the new family compact, it is believed, hope to divide some £1200 yearly among themselves. But, remember, you are not to engage in another General Election, the late House of Assembly (Mr. Whelan), has been encouraging the Legislative Council in their opposition to the House of Assembly; and, strange to say, promises, that should his party come again into power, he will still further tax the country to pay the Legislative Council, who do little but obstruct the business of the House of Assembly. Can this be true? say some of you. It is true, and cannot be denied or got over; for Mr. Whelan's notice may be found, in black and white, in the Order Book of the House of Assembly, dated the 11th day of the 2nd Session of the House, bringing in a Bill to authorize the Government to pay the Legislative Council. A nice way this to squander your money! Were the Council abolished, we would save some £1000 each year by it, or were they made elective, there would then be some reasonable ground for their being paid. But Mr. Whelan, no doubt, sympathizes with those who are seeking to obtain office. I find, on examining the Public Accounts, as published in the Journal of the House of Assembly, for the years 1847, 1848, 1849, and 1850, that Mr. Whelan received, as Queen's Printer, for the four years, £1428 9s. 10d.; on further examination, I find, that Mr. Whelan received, as Queen's Printer, for the last two years alone, £1471 18s 11d. It is no wonder that Mr. Whelan, hoping to gain between Seven and Eight hundred Pounds a year by it—should print and circulate hundreds of Petitions all through the country, praying for a Dissolution of the House of Assembly. When his party succeeds in getting a majority again, I suppose we shall be ruled, as Mr. Whelan threatened, at a public meeting held in Queen's Hall, "with a rod of iron." Mr. Coles was present at that meeting, and it is well known, that Messrs. Coles and Whelan plot and scheme together, whatever they may seem to say to the contrary. But Gentlemen, the only way to get an end put to this sort of work, is, to rid both branches of the Legislature altogether of office-holders. I voted for a bill last Session, positively excluding every one holding an office of emolument from the Legislature, with the exception of two, the Attorney General and the Colonial Secretary; but this would not suit the Council, who wanted many of the offices themselves, and consequently threw out the bill. I am now determined to go farther, and I pledge myself, that if returned again, I will bring in a bill to exclude every office-holder from both branches of the Legislature, the same as in the United States, and no country in the world thrives, or "goes ahead," faster than the United States of America—so far I am willing to copy from their institutions; and if the Legislative Council will not pass the bill, we will memorialize the home Government to leave to us the management of the Disqualification, I have introduced a great part of the District, and I feel grateful for the kind manner in which I have been received, and the very general promise of support that have been given to me. Mr. McLeod is also in the field with you, and we have contracted together a great part of the District, and I feel grateful for the kind manner in which I have been received, and the very general promise of support that have been given to me. Mr. McLeod is also in the field with you, and we have contracted together a great part of the District, and I feel grateful for the kind manner in which I have been received, and the very general promise of support that have been given to me. Mr. McLeod is also in the field with you, and we have contracted together a great part of the District, and I feel grateful for the kind manner in which I have been received, and the very general promise of support that have been given to me.

To the Free and Independent Electors of the Second Electoral District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN: HAVING had the honor to represent you in the first House of Assembly under Responsible Government, in this Island, and not being aware that any part of my political conduct had merited your disapprobation, I again offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages. My political principles are unchanged; and, should you again honor me with your confidence, you shall always find me the same unflinching, uncompromising character that I trust you that know me, have ever found me to be, sustained by the smiles of those above me, and equally undismayed by their frowns. I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your most obedient Servant, EDWARD PALMER. May 20th, 1854. 1st Adv Ed
