dered at, since as Chillingworth declares: "The Bible only, is the religion of Protestante." It is the great emancipator from every kind of thraidom. Every species of always will speedily disappear before the bonign teachings. The tree of liberty will be seen shooting out its leaves, and putting forth its blessous, and hearing its delightful frait. No nation possessing the Bible, and knowing its truths, and obeying its heavenly precepts, and imbued with its hallowed spirit, will law be in thraidom. What is it that leads man to emiste his fellows? It is the want of moral principle,—it is selfathene,—it is ambition. But where the instructions of the Bible prevail in a community, those dispositions which would lead us to seek a undue as condanny over others are eradicated; we are taught to respect the just rights of our neighbor, and the relieve of the Book of God come to us accompanied by his blessing.

The stree parties than, the sincere lover of his country, the lover of his kind, will be a zealous promoter of Bible reading. He will kinself be a diligent student of its many of the country, and of the hands of individuals, in the family, in the achies! J. C. Aran, M. D., Lowesta, Man. Bran. Gin; I have examined your CATRANTIC FILLS, and become theroughly acquainted with their composition. It is a new and judicious combination of materials passessing points of excellence which, I bullave, have not been obtained before.

As a Cathartic for general use, they are far atperfer to any which have hitherto fallon under my cotice. They do not contain any miscent cubstance whatever; and, consequently, ell objections arged against each ingredients are obvicted.

The still method of separating the active principles of which those Filts are composed from the inert regardless matter is uncitarious, and should command apocal attention, and wie for the Filts the liberal patronge of the guilds.
