ARE YOU
GRASPING YOUR
OPPORTUNITIES?

How great a tendency there is amongst some to continually bemoan their lack of opportunity, especially when they see those who easily climb the ladder of success attain great heights of fame or even appear to make a name for themselves "Oh their chances have been greater than mine" is the complaint.
And while this may be so; yet opportunities are fairly evenly distributed and we all have our share even though they may not be as great as some have.

A legend is told of a statue before which stood a stranger gazing in wonderment. He questioned it.
"What do they call you?", he asked "My name is opportunity" answered the statue.

"Why have you wings to your feet?"
"That all may know I fly quickly"
"Why do you stand on tip-toe?"
"I am questioned by the stranger."
"That all may see me" came the answer.

HELP FOR
YOUNG WOMEN

Mrs. Holmberg Tells How
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Viking, Alta.—"From the time I was 15 years old I would get such sick feelings in the lower part of my abdomen, followed by cramps and vomiting. This kept me from my work (I help my parents on the farm) as I usually had to go to bed for the rest of the day. Or at times I would have to walk the floor. I suffered in this way until a friend induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very satisfactory results so far and am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends. I surely am glad I tried it for I feel like a different person now that I don't have these troubles." ODELIA HOLMBERG, Box 93, Viking.

Letters like this establish the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They tell of the relief from such pains and ailments after taking it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills in this country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials prove this fact.

If you doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Cobourg, Ontario, for Mrs.
Pinkham's private text-book and learn more about it.

still further.

"Why have you a lock of hair in the front?" he continued.

"So that people may seize me" was the reply.

"And why is your head bald at the back?"

"That men may not seize me once I am gone" replied the statue.

How necessary then that we should grasp our opportunities and not linger, indecisively until they are gone for they will never come again! The value of opportunities which we should learn well is borne out in the words of Shakespeare:

"Who seeks and will not take when it is offer!
Shall never find it more."

The loss of many opportunities is consequent upon the evasion of the sacrifice which almost invariably accompanies them. To accept opportunity therefore is to shoulder responsibility proportionate to the opportunity. The embracing of opportunities also calls for the need of perseverance and many who have started life with great possibilities and high ambitions have become disappointed because of failure consequent upon lack of perseverance.

How often we hear the wail "Oh if I had only the opportunity of so-and-so!" But those of others will not come our way. Let us therefore watch for ours for they will surely present themselves. In the acceptance of them we shall find our time well occupied without comparing them with what others seem to possess.

We hear of a neighbor who is sick. NOW is the time to perform the deed of kindness we desire to render. To-morrow the chance may not be ours. A friend in trouble or bereavement. Speak the consoling word NOW. Another is passing through a season of sore temptation let the strength of your tender words of encouragement bear her up in her weakness—but NOW.
They will be of little use after thee battle's fought and won. And how sad if she is defeated in the fight for the want of your help!

"There is a tide in the affairs of men

Which, taken at the flood leads on to fortune;
Omitted, all the voyage of their life is bound in shallows and in miseries; On such a full sea are we now afloat And we must take the current when it serves Or lose our ventures."
—Shakespeare.

CONCERNING BUBBLES

John Wanamaker once said:
"Almost anyone can blow a bubble but it is only a bubble after all." Think about that. If you think you are cutting quite a figure in your business; in your club; in your town make sure that the structure which you are building few solid qualities of and which is YOU is sound. Be sure it is not just a bubble. Others may be deceived by your baloon. Don't be deceived by it. Be sure that behind your ten thousand dollar impression; your big name and your glad hand you have enduring texture. No matter how big the bubble; how rosy the rainbow tints in it; it is only a bubble after all. And every body knows what a bubble finally does.

You need not hide skin defects—now

Millions know this simple way to avoid them—to keep skin lovely, youthful

Do not make the mistake of attempting to cover or hide skin defects. It can never succeed.
And there is a better way—which millions know:

This simple method to avoid them—to keep the youthful radiance and clearness of schoolgirl complexion.

For a week do this Cleanse the skin regularly, authorities say, to keep your complexion lovely, radiant, youthful.

But beware of harsh cleansing methods. They injure skin.

Wash thoroughly with Palmolive Soap—each night before retiring. Rub the creamy, foamy lather well into the tiny pores. Rinse — and repeat the washing. Then rinse again.

Then—if skin is dry—apply a little cold cream. That is all.
Skin so cared for is not injured by cosmetics, by wind and sun, or by dirt.

The simple, correct way

You cannot find a more effective beauty treatment. Because Palmolive Soap is blended of rare palm and olive oils—famous for mild but thorough cleansing qualities since the days of Cleopatra. And it is inexpensive. Enjoy it for the bath also.

But be sure you get Palmolive —which is never sold unwrapped.
All dealers have it. Get some and follow this simple method for one week. This results will delight you, even in that short time.
