SOME REASONS WHY YORK SHOULD THE HISTORY OF THE BRIDGE. SUSTAIN THE GOVERNMENT.

The government has been wisely and body does and no wonder, for a good honestly conducted, as is shown by the many things happen nowadays. fact that its general policy has never been assailed.

The credit of the province never stood state the principal features of it. so high. The provincial bonds as they In 1885 it was proposed by the Fraser fall due are taken up at a large saving in interest.

All departments of the public service of the members irrespective of party were receive prompt attention and with in- taken; and Messrs. Blair and Thompson creased demands upon the revenue, the refused to support such a bill unless progrants to the several services are not re- vision was made in it for a subsidy to a often that a public man puts a tag on him- parents. Mr. Blair made a powerful duced. bridge across the river at Fredericton.

The interests of the farmers have been Their object was to commit the legislature well considered, as is shown by the two to the construction of the bridge. To this horse importations, the sheep importation, hon. Mr. Fraser agreed, a section giving the reorganization of the agricultural $50,000 in aid of a bridge was placed in department, the increased number of the subsidy bill and was passed by the agricultural societies, the bonuses and house. This was the first step. facilities given to butter and cheese In the same session Mr. Colter intro-making, the dissemination of information duced a bill to incorporate a company to valuable to farmers, the institution of build a toll bridge over the river here. district shows.

The government has refused to the provision for the collection of tolls purchase support by an indiscriminate should be struck out, and it was offer of railway subsidies. It has done struck out. They knew no comeverything for York in this respect that pany would build it unless they the county had reason to expect, every- could collect tolls; but they did not want thing in short, that the county asked for, a company to build it. They had com- Geo. J. Colter, Sold, Price $2000. but it has declared that each subsidy mitted the legislature to a bridge and promust come before the house on its own posed to have it built as a government merits and there shall be no general work and be free for all time to everyscheme irrespective of the merits of each body. This was the second step. enterprise. The legislature was thus committed to

The government has stood up manfully a bridge when George Colter became chief for provincial rights, has pressed the commissioner of public works, but not a claims of the province at all times, with single step was taken during the nine firmness, and while holding itself at liberty months he held the office to build the to act independently of the federal govern- bridge, and when the legislature met in ment on all questions, has yet maintained 1883, the government had not the slightest friendly relations with it: in other words intention of asking for a grant to build it has opposed the wishes of the federal the bridge. authorities when the interests of the But happily for this county, the governprovince demanded it, and has acted in ment was defeated and Mr. Blair and his harmony with these wishes when it was friends came into power. Almost the in the interest of the province to do so, very first administrative act of the new keeping in view first and last that it was government was to call for tenders for the a provincial government and neither an bridge: these were received; the contract annex to or an opponent of the federal was made; the bridge was built, notgovernment. It claims and receives alike withstanding a strenuous opposition led support of liberal and conservatives. by Mr. Hanington and encouraged by The government does not make dis- Mr. Colter. tinctions of race or creed. It leaves that This is a simple statement of fact which to its opponents. They raised in St. John cannot be truthfully denied. It is on the religious cry, and one of their emisrecord and no man can gainsay it: saries is or has lately been stumping this That George J. Colter had it in contemcounty endeavoring to stir up bigotry and plation to secure for a private company, religious hatred. which would erect a toll bridge, the sum

The government, while not neglecting of $50,000 which Messrs. Blair and Thompother counties, has been very friendly to son had inserted in the general subsidy York. It gave us act with the view of committing the The Bridge.

The Departmental Building. The Deaf and Dumb Asylum. The Government Stables.

The Subsidy to the N. & W. Ry. The Subsidy to the Prince William Ry. A York county man leads the government and is admittedly the most influential man in it. James Mitchell, provincial secretary, is leagues in the new administration to a York county boy.

George J. Colter is out as a candidate People are apt to forget things. Every on behalf, as he alleges, of pure govern-

Some people have forgotten the history fact, which he will not venture to deny, A few insolent young cubs named Crocket, of the Fredericton bridge. Therefore we commissioner of public works in a new administration to introduce a new railway subsidy bill. As was usual the views at $2000 a year. Odd is it not? Blair and part once before and people simply his colleagues might ruin the province, as he says they will, and yet he would not feeling in part of contempt for the interfere for less than $2000. It is not individuals and in parts of pity for their self with his price marked on it. George > follows: "SOLD-FOR $2000."

THE PRICE OF PATRIOTISM.

No longer can it be disputed that this Messrs. Blair and Thompson insisted that at his brother, who surely has as much borne all this without retaliation, and his right to preferment as he, and having been first in the field ought not to have received such treatment at his hands.

But the money is not to be paid unless he can deliver York over to the enemy. HE CANNOT DO IT.

George Colter tried to get $50,000 public money to build a toll bridge.

THE DOCTOR CALLED IN. Hitherto the county of York has been able to attend to its own affairs without What is the spectacle which we have toutside interference. It has remained for | day in York? Brother against brother, a the opposition ticket to send for "a family divided, and a bitter feud engendered because of him, because his malice stumper."

There is nothing out of the way in a and hatred will not be appeased while his political friend, who happens to be in the benefactor can hold his head erect in city, dropping into a party meeting and this community. This is his latest outrage saying a word of encouragement. That is upon decency, but does any one suppose all right and proper, but this sending out it is his last?

for stump speakers is another matter. It Mr. Blair's exposition of the claims of is a confession of incapacity. Are not the the government upon the county was very opposition ticket able to fight their own strongly put and splendidly received. battles? Are the friends of the opposition Mr. Wilson made a grand speech, one of candidates unable to supply any deficiency the best that he ever made. His well in speaking talent, which the gentlemen put points told, and the verdict of all was that he added to his growing popularity. on the ticket leave vacant? If the opposition candidates cannot Of course the rowdy opposition element speak for themselves among their neigh- tried to cry him down, and to disconcert bors, how shall they voice the sentiments him by interruptions, but he came out of their neighbors in the legislature? Is the winner every time, finally silencing Dr. Atkinson to be York's spokesman in his enemies altogether. the house if the opposition carry the day? Mr. Anderson's speech was a capital one. Dr. Atkinson, who has been brought He made an admirable impression surhere by the opposition, was taken by Mr. prising his best friends by his strongly Gregory up to Marysville as an introduc- made points, for Mr. Anderson has never tion. We are not told what Marysville made any pretensions to being a speaker. has done that a stranger from another He appeared to very great advantage and county should be brought in to tell the produced a most excellent impression.

was turned out Mr. Blair asked his col- people how to vote. Marysville people It was late when Thomas Colter took have usually been credited with average the platform ; but the audience gave him a intelligence. They are newspaper readers grand hearing and he acquitted himself

THE INVASION OF YORK.

The general impression produced by D. L. Hanington, the man who opposed the proceedings on nomination day was the building of the bridge, "in the inment. He poses as a patriot, but it is a distinctly favorable to the government. terests of the neighboring state" (official reports of the assembly for 1885, page 95) that he refused to offer until he got a sons of the chief superintendant of eduwho moved a resolution to prevent any York. written promise that he would be made | cation made a great deal of noise in the money being granted to it, and at whose hope of creating enthusiasm for the opgovernment. His patriotism was for sale position, but they have played that the man who tried to stop the building of the departmental buildings, has come regard their demonstrations with a to York to stump the county in the sition. Mr. Hanington will talk very loud. As appeal to the electors, and he carried the Judge Wedderburn said (official debates Colter has done this. He is tagged as fight into the enemy's camp in fine style. of 1874, page 131) his voice "will emulate Mr. Blair has dealt quite generously with the roaring of the rolling river Petithis opponents. They have vilified him codiac."

NOMINATION.

in every possible way. His personal He will deny that he ever opposed a reputation, his character as a public man Fredericton interest. Judge Fraser said county has on the 23rd to choose between have been traduced in almost every conof him (official debates of 1874, page 95) Blair and Colter. The paper is made out ceivable way. Charges have been made 'No one could pin him down to anything and signed. George Colter has it in his against him, which if true, would show he said." pocket. He would not consent to offer him not only to be unworthy of public He will make the wildest possible statewithout it, but for this he is ready to confidence, but to be an unsafe man to ments. Judge Wedderburn said of him sacrifice the county, for this he has struck | leave at large in the community. He has official debates 1874, page 113) "His magination has such a profound venerenemies, encouraged by his silence, have ation for the truth that it always keeps at assailed him more bitterly than ever. On a most respectful distance from it." Thursday he gave them a taste, just a little He will make all manner of misrepreone, of their own medicine, and they howled as if in torture. Had he done as he might have done, and as the persecutions to which he has been subjected would fully justify him in doing, he could have unfolded a story that would have made the electors present hold their breath with horror. "These things happened long ago" whined Mr. Gregory, when Mr. Blair referred to Gregory's ingratitude. The particular incident may have happened long ago, but others have ments with which the honorable member been happening year after year since. dared to stand before it." With no one present to contradict him and show the falsity of his utterances, he will out-Herod Herod in the recklessness of his assertions. Said Judge King of him (official debates of 1874, page 138) "If the hon. member for Westmorland would make the preposterous statements he had advanced in the house, his constituents might know what to expect from him when running at large on the marshes of Westmorland." This is one of York's invaders as painted by men who knew him well. "Reckless," "audacious," "unreliable," "wriggling" (this was Judge King's expression) "impossible to pin down," a dealer in "preposterous" assertions. We have nothing to add, except to say to the electors who hear him emulate the roaring of the river Petitcodiac, that they had better keep these adjectives in mind. No doubt Judge Wedderburn's characterization of his speech on the school law (official debates of 1874, page 131) "his whole statement is incorrect" will apply to his speech in Fredericton on Tuesday night next: and no doubt the opposition, when all is over will endorse what Judge Wedderburn said of him (same book and page). "Your assistance proverbially has the effect of defeating everything it advocates.'

true."

tives?

York at heart?

and York influence

The young men whose names have been added to the voters lists since the passing of the franchise act of 1889, form a very considerable element in the electorate of These young men who were given a voice request George Colter shirked the vote, in public affairs by the government, whose life is now threatened in York, will have a grand opportunity on the 23rd inst. to show their loyalty to their native county interests of his dear friends the oppo- by voting solidly for the government ticket.

The government candidates rely upon your intelligence not to mistake the nature of the issue, submitted to the electors of York. Rally round the government which had the courage to place on the statute books of the province a law conferring the full privileges of free citizenship on a large and intelligent body, who had prior to the passing of the franchise act been debared from exercising any voice in the management of public affairs.

YOUNG MEN OF YORK :

A contract to sell your native county has been signed, and you will be asked by the opposition to sanction the delivery of the goods on the 23rd.

You will be approached with arguments sentations about the finances of the proand influences alike insulting to your invince. Judge King said of him (official debate of 1874, page 137) "His statements telligence and your manhood. Show the schemers who have dared to bargain away are unreliable and his audacity in the the independence of York that the matter of representation is astounding." young men of York will be no party to He will charge the government with all any such disgraceful compact. manner of wrongdoing without a shadow Rise in your might, go to the polls in of reason for so doing. Judge King said a body and teach these schemers from of him (official debates of 1874, page 137) abroad, and unfaithful ones at home, that "The house and country would be surprised the interests of York are safe in the hands at the recklessness and audacity of stateof its young men. Bury the plotterswho would sell your birthright-under an avalanche of your indignant votes. Vote solidly for the government ticket and snow the schemers under.

ST. JOHN INVADES YORK.

The St. John members have invaded this county.

They have not dared to come in openly but they have sneaked in through the ack roads of Prince William. McKeown is on hand with abundance of nonev sent up from St. John. $20.000 is the contribution of St. John to defeat York's best friends. They want to buy this county up. They boast that they can do it

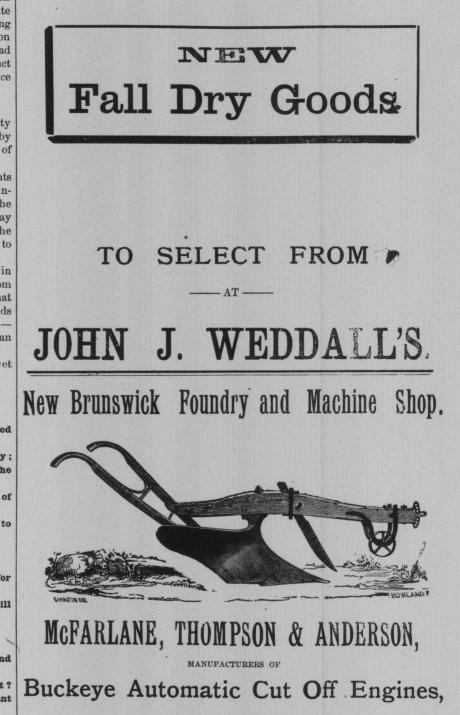

Don't touch their money, but vote for York If they force their money on you, still vote for York Send the boodlers home York wants no outside interference Down with St. John interlopers and their candidates

Why is St. John making such an effort ? Because Blair will not be its plian tool as Colter has promised to be

The Markets.

There has been a good attendance at the market this week and prices as a rule are a DUNBAR IMPROVED SHINGLE MILLS.

CELEBRATED

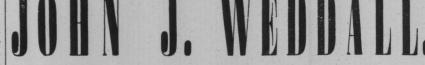

Improved Rotary Saw Mills, Mill Machinery, Enclosed Gear

Mowers, Ithaca Horserakes, Stoves and Furnaces,

RailwayCastings.

One Rotary Saw Mill on hand.

One 50 Horse-power Buckeye Engine on Hand.

An Immense Stock of works, stood by Mr. Blair and helped him to strengthen Mr. Fraser's hands in the struggle for the parliament building.

Lemuel J. Tweedie, surveyor general, is a good friend of York.

William Pugsley, solicitor general, has been so much with us since his boyhood that he almost seems to be one of our- ton, the alleged friend of York. selves. He and his Kings county colleagues may be counted to be with York at all times.

Archibald Harrison is our neighbor, and never failed this constituency yet.

David McLellan stood by Blair like a man in all efforts for this county.

Another government as well disposed to this county cannot be picked out of the against that York Co. enterprise. legislature. It would be a terrible mistake to cast it overboard.

It is better for the county to be represented by the leader of the government than by mere followers, such as George Colter was and would be again if he were elected.

The county must stand for up itself. York will not be content with the crumbs that fall from the St. John table.

MR. WILSON.

William Wilson has fulfilled the expectations of those, who looked forward to his occupying a useful and honorable position. He has been a good representative. Other counties appreciate him. When St. Let every friend of Blair vote for his commission — the most important piece son do the same; let every friend of tles. of local legislation ever attempted in the Anderson do the same; let every friend of province, they selected William Wilson, Colter do the same. and so admirably did he perform the Let the verdict of Thursday be one work, that it stands untouched. He was which the county will not have cause to D. L. Hanington. good enough for St. John then; but he is regret. To insure this, see that your balnot good enough for St. John now. He is lots bear the names of the tried friends too strong a man in the house to suit the of York. The electors know, for it is on St. John faction and they are bound to record that Blair and his colleagues are defeat him.

ablest men in public life in this province. efforts of the government to aid this He possesses that personal magnetism, county. that fund of humor, that readiness of The opposition boast that St. John will of it; but the rest is sent up from St. roughly progressive in his ideas, broad and in St. John to do it. liberal in his views. His trained intel- A gentleman from another county said Fredericton, and sent them a circular lect readily grasps any subject. Those to THE HERALD on nomination day: "I showing how it could be done; so now union bill say that it was a grand effort, I hope the government will win in York; details and clearness of view, which even St. John. We know what they have done his best friends scarcely believed him to when they had the power."

son aside for untried men; and York is the St. John clique. The way to do it is not going to do it. MR. ANDERSON.

John Anderson only held a seat in the house for one session; but during that | bridge. time he gained the hearty esteem of all the members. They saw in him a frank, GEO. J. COLTER AND THE STUMPAGE. straightforward business man, who knows the county and the province at large thoroughly, and who is prepared to form an independent judgment on all subjects. ought to be defeated because it has con-John Anderson will always vote for York. sented to a reduction of the stumpage He will support a government that he thinks is doing right and oppose them March 10th 1885 arose in his place in the when he thinks they are doing wrong. House and said :- "He favored a reduc-That a man like John Anderson gives his tion of the stumpage, because it was higher adhesion to an administration is about as than operatives could afford to pay. If the good proof as could be desired that the government could not run the country on administration is a good one. He is in a the revenue they should resign. In view position to be thoroughly independent; of the increased revenue the government he is in a position to know what the goy- could afford to reduce the stumpage and ernment has done; and no man can say save money to the poor operatives." that he is not thoroughly honest, reliable and courageous. If the government were | revenue" the present government has reas corrupt as its enemies allege, would he duced the stumpage, Mr. Colter is clamorsupport it an hour? Not he.

ling of the bridge; that P. G. Ryan, chief commissioner of public they did so and the work was begun at

That his plan was defeated by Messrs.

That though he held office for nine nonths he never so much as suggested

That the moment the old government that the bridge should be built by the legislature to a bridge.

Blair and Thompson.

government.

That on the only occasion when he could by vote aid in the building of the bridge, George Colter left the house saying he had voted enough for it.

That the head and front of the opposition to the bridge was Daniel L. Haning-Electors of York, will you vote against Blair and in favor of Colter on this record? Marvsville ?

Who tried to kill the N. & W. Railway in the English money market? D. L. Hanington, who right away declared there was a black mark

WHAT OUGHT TO BE DONE ON THURSDAY.

When they go to the polls on Thursday, do if they ever get in power? every friend of the government, every Just a word about Dr. Atkinson. friend of the county, should deposit a a Carleton county man to THE HERALD on Wednesday :

square government ticket, namely : A. G. BLAIR WILLIAM WILSON

JOHN ANDERSON THOMAS J. COLTER

Not a divided ballot should be thrown. help St. John curb York." A divided ballot is a vote for the enemy. The electors of York will vote against John wanted a chairman for their union three colleagues; let every friend of Wil- enemies of the county to fight their bat- so a while longer.

WHO FURNISHES THE POWDER

It is alleged openly upon the street, and staunch friends of this county. They the statement does not appear to lack It is not using the language of exaggera- know that the only man on the opposition corroboration, that most of the abuse of tion to say that Mr. Wilson is one of the ticket, who has a record, opposed the Mr. Blair, with which the Gleaner has speech which always tell in public life. send them all the money needed to carry John. In other words just as the Gleaner He is enthusiastic in his work; tho- the county There is not enough money wanted to be the mouthpiece of the St.

who heard his exposition of the St. John have always been on the other side; but it is the mouthpiece of the St. John opand showed him to possess a mastery of for to tell you the truth I am afraid of the premiership from York.

York should on Thursday save the the four gentlemen who seek to oust the It would be a great blunder to set Wil- province from the unscrupulous designs of government.

> to vote the solid government ticket. claims for the short line? George Colter shirked the vote on the The St. John interest Who wants to defeat Blair ? The St. John clique. Who will lead the government if the pposition succeed? George J. Colter is going around the A. A. Stockton, of St. John. county crying out that the government What does St. John Want? Everything.

Will it get it? This is the same George J. Colter who on Not by a large majority. York has to be heard from yet. Vote the government ticket, the wh ticket and nothing but the ticket. Every enemy of York will rejoice at home.

Blair or Colter which shall it be? Blair fought for York : Colter shirked government. the votes. And because "in view of the increased ing through the county for the overthrow for the war in York county. Blair and has come here to tell the people of York government ticket is a vote for York. A of the government.

almost universally. Probably it would in a highly satisfactory manner. He had not be difficult to pick out a score of men a hard place to fill, to follow so many there as well, if not better, able to deal others over such well trodden ground; with public questions as Dr. Atkinson, but he made new points and made them and there is probably not a voter in the well. There was a large crowd in town, and place not as well able to form an opinion on public questions quite as well as Dr. as far as could be judged from their conversation it was a government crowd in Atkinson is. He has nothing in common with Marysville. He never by vote or the proportion of two to one.

speech did the town, its people or its in- IT WAS THE GOVERNMENT'S DAY. dustries any service. Why in the name of common sense should he be sent to Who opposed the short line bill in the local house? Stockton and Alward, who The electors of York had better put now dictate who shall be the opposition their foot down on this sort of busine candidates in York.

This outside domination may as well TAKING POSSESSION TOO SOON. be stopped now as at any time.

The enemies of the county are showing The second apostle of purity to visit this their hand very early. If they have ounty in the interests of the immaculate begun already to send in outsiders to tell Fregory & Co., is the first person unseated our people what to do, what will they not in New Brunswick for bribery and corruption, and his name is Daniel L. Han-Said ington. He has come to tell the electors of York how to vote.

He is taking Possession too; Soon. "Of all the piece of cheek, Atkinson's He is Ahead of Time. coming to York is the worst. He ran his The Goods are not Ready for Delivery own election on the cry 'Blair is all for True, Gregory has the St. John money York.' I tell you it is a positive fact He made no other canvass. He called on n his pocket and Colter the written the electors to return him that he might promise of office; but the electors have vet to be heard from. York has managed heretofore to get along without Mr. Hanington and can do 1st. Are you willing that the governthe candidates who import these open Perhaps he has his axe Who tried to block the building of with him to cut down the the new Departmental Building ? bridge.

> Electors of York, Hanington and Atkinson call on you to defeat Blair. They have come into the county to dictate to you. Send them home with a lesson they will never forget.

We want no Westmorland dictation in York.

> Remember the bridge and vote the covernment ticket.

strue an observation made by Mr. Wilson on nomination day to the effect that he 4th. Are you willing to trust your for (Colter) had been brought from his potato field to take a place in the opposition ticket, as a slur upon the farmers. Seeing John organ. Flatten it out, and with it that out of the four government candidates two are farmers, such a slur would have been pointless had it been intended. The man who insults the farmers is he WHAT interest opposed Fredericton's who resents a reference to the fact that he is a farmer. A lawyer does not get angry 5th. Are you willing that your representat a reference to his office, a preacher at a reference to his pulpit, a merchant at a reference to his store, a manufacturer at a reference to his shop. Why should a farmer be angry at a reference to his farm? Mr. Colter was. The inference is that he is ashamed of his call-It ill becomes any one with a place on the ticket with G. F. Gregory to claim to be a friend of the farmers. Mr. Gregory, when defeated in 1887, said that he "thanked God, he led in Fredericton, the seat of the intelligence of the county;" by corrupt influences to make York a

any one of the government ticket is left and his organ, the Gleaner, asserted consenting party to her own defeat; will over and over that the farmers of York you submit to this? were made drunk and bought by the YOUNG MEN OF YORK

Who opposed the railway from Freder-THE Restigouche Pioneer says: "Now ioton to Woodstock? Dr. Atkinson, who your vote in its favor. A vote for the Let some one try an experiment. little better. Beef 6 to 7cts per lb. by the Charge Mr. Hanington with saying someqr, 7 to 9cts by the joint; mutton 7 to 8 cts; thing he is reported to have said in the lamb 9cts; chickens per pair 50 to 60 cts official debates, and its dollars to doughsmall 45cts; sausages 10cts per lb; eggs per nuts that he shreiks out. "That's not doz. 18 to 24cts : butter 16 to 18cts lb : chees 12 to 14cts ; hay $8. to $10. per ton ; straw $5 per ton : oats 60 cts per bush : buckwheat $1.75 Why is York invaded by Westmorland per cwt. A small quantity of apples were and St. John? brought into market and realised $1.75 to Why is St. John money freely poured $2.50 per bbl. Green vegetables continue firm. The above are the only articles Do these counties have the interests present in the market.

Will Hanington do more than Blair has Will Stockton be more favorable to us than our own tried and true representa-

No, no. Hating each other, they are banded in an untruly alliance to kill Blair No other explanation of their conduct i

Oct. 20, 1890. 3 ins

JUST RECEIVED,

Just Received and in Stock,

Cook

Hall

possible Never before has this country been vaded by its enemies.

Sons of York drive them back to the homes defeated forever.

ELECTORS OF YORK.

When you deposit your ballots on the 23rd inst., do not forget the issues to be decided. Practically they are these : ment which you have so long entrusted with your confidence, and whose conduct of affairs you have so often and so emphatically approved at the polls, Per S. S. Nova Scotian. should be "wounded in the house of its friends?" After so many years of JUST RECEIVED, 15 casks Raw and Boiled earnest, consistent and progressive effort in the public interest in general, and that of York in particular, are you willing that a government-led from York-Horse Nails. should be struck down by York itself? 2nd. Are you willing that York should 80 BOXES HORSE NAILS (all perfect Nails) assorted sizes. Just received by lose its proper and legitimate influence in the control of provincial affairs or R. CHESTNUT & SONS. that that influence should be lessened or weakened? City Dwelling and Lot 3rd. Are you willing that any knot of conspirators, outside of York, shall de-FOR SALE. cide what the influence of York in the councils of the province is to be, and are

THE subscribers are authorized to dispose at private sale the Dwelling House and Lot on Brunswick Street, City, belonging to the estate of the late George Thompson. For terms and other particulars apply to you willing to assist those conspirators with your votes? tunes in the present crisis, when the against York shows the strength of the Fredericton, Sept. 11th, 1890. motives which are impelling them, to new and to untried men, to men whose Steel !

past records or absence of records give no guarantee that your interests will be safe in their hands?

very eagerness of the conspirator atives shall be bound by any other consideration and subject to any other influence than that of your own wishes freely at the polls expressed. STOVES 6th. Are you willing to have it go to the world that old York has so far forgotten her history, and her traditions as to trust her fortunes to the tender mercies of St. John, and to increase the influence of St. John in the same proportion that Fifty she diminishes her own? The opponents of the government are seeking to win in York, and they hope

Some of which are the NEWEST and MOS' IMPROVED STOVES that can be had in Canada; and every Stove warranted if requested. The government which placed the franchise in your hands, appeals to you Forty to give it your confidence and record

INSPECTION INVITED.

