In advance the only other that each State bound by the and such agraubmission, of knew that in a outqumbered n outgumbered n threshold of th fore we are mebe reinoved. I acter of the pr You will obselve the sugall the States of beld by comma vious understan casions—should pass resolutions is not supposed meaning attach who are active resolutions to a declare the fur would be simply with the consen in other words, ing for peace, is not intelligible is only to be h two belligerent obtained withouten, would resulted. then, would rest the two govern agreement for it to make propose much more prot for peace at one appointment of without power to posals. If the States is willing for peace directly for peace direct!

fuse to consent t
The author of The author of who concur in h commit the rada the obstacle to o all desire consist proper agencies whole scope of the but suggesting to the best agency. that we should st ledge that we are After this state appear superfluo ity; but as you view; I will add instances of the idelays which atte on great and contract the heart this has been the sessed full power can we have from can we hope from

from thirty or for of an exasperation

the ratification of war as the present the large assemble would undergo co to the viscissitue and the attempt to more embittered the possibility of Again, how is the conflicting presen in regard to severa come? Is it supp enter into a con from what our en State of West Vii an insolent and vice territory? Or we sent that West Vir sent that West Vir, her pretensions to formally admitted her to vote at a P: would send a delegessee, Kentucky o claim to hold the g while we assert the Confederacy. We from both sides? a disruption of the are received from a vention the States the result would re what value could be mendations of a besuch circumstances erations auggest the been said to justify proposal of separatimpracticable, and to counterbalance sequences to the ca

Fenians Public curiosity i not excited by anno terrible Fenian con not excited by anne terrible Fenian con sweep awy Britist the Constitution, am At Skibbereen, the clerk was committee for swearing in men potent brotherhood, question the existen nor to east a doubt but we do mean to a projects that ever eraniums of Erin go organization is the n The organization. It appears to have o with some of the Ire in the follies of '48 "country for their own safety, nonement, in the Tu Under such hopefu Society was unhered are to credit the 'repjournals, it soon asst tions, as Ira at leas concribed.

The ostensible of

The ostensible of members to themse a favorable making a descent on land. Once landed, Protestants was regarment—the power of considered as of trivia in fact, of any import likely to at all intervetion of that during "Ireland for the Irist tractive programme."