New Altar for St. Vincent's Churhc.

A beautiful new Altar was recentl shipped by Callahan, Glass & Co, t the Rev. S. O. Driscoll, the respected Parish Priest of St. Vincent's, St. Got Bad Sprain. Mary's Bay, and has just been install in the Church of St. Vincent. The Altar table consists of three panels ported by six columns finished in onyx marble. The supporting col-lumns over the tabernacle show a finish of Rose de Levant, while the ground work is done so artisticall as to show a true representation of Carara Marble. The minor parts are nicely finished in gold. His Grace, the Archbishop, who saw the Altar before shipment, spoke very highly of the workmanship and artistic decoration, which reflects great Nickel Crowded Again.

The Nickel Theatre was crowded last evening and the programme was spoken of in glowing terms. There which was a beauty. Nickel Theatre goers are certainly receiving the worth of their money these days. To-night he programme will be repeated, and vill no doubt be a large attendance.

The Graballs Frozen Out.

Special to Evening Telegram. CHANGE ISLANDS, To-day. Graball Fitzgerald held a meeting tere last night. It was the worst neeting ever held at Change Islands; 2 men and boys attended, the majority of whom belong to other places and who attended out of curiosity. Not one cheer for Morris; not one fiag flew, although Fitz was here one whole day visiting people. So much were they off their heads that the flag went to the top of the hat the flag went to the top of the Orange Hall upside down. This was taken as a sign to show that the Graball Party are in distress. They could not get one man to speak in Fitzgerald's favor; not even Tommy Turnabout, Sly Pishy, Bill the Sucker Brass Buttons, although some of the above named were invited on the tage, but feeling so sick over the affair, could not utter a word. The meeting closed with ringing cheers for Bond, Coaker and W. W. Halfyard Fitz leaves again to-day like a dog with his tail cut, with Bill the Sucker trying to get in his pocket.
