CABLE NEWS.

WAR SUMMARY.

While waiting for the German command to show its hand in beginning a new assault, the Allied forces on the Western front are giving the enemy little opportunity to perfect his arrangements for launching his expected, but still deferred attack. From the Lys sector on the north to the Champagne front in eastern France, there have been sudden thrusts and the German lines, at least one of which has made considerable ground. The particular blow was struck by the French west of the Oise and north of the Lys River on the battlefield where the Germans were stopped short in their attempt to hew their way through to Compiègne early in June. The French advanced along the Compiègne road northwest of Arras and occupied the Igere and Fort farms on each side of the highway. The ground they have taken is important from a defensive standpoint, and cuts down the area in which the Germans must manoeuvre in this part of the battle area. There seems to have been some spirited fighting on the British front along the LaBasse canal, northwest of Lens and north of the Somme in the Picardy sector. Berlin announces that the British were repulsed in frequently repeated attacks in the former region, and adds that the attacks north of the Somme broke down. The French attack at Arras is merely mentioned in the official German statement, which says, however, that attacks in the Villers-Coterets and Chateau Thierry sectors were repulsed by the Germans. While the fighting on the Macedonian and Albanian frontiers must remain a side issue to the great battles that are expected momentarily in France and possibly Northern Italy, the progress of the French and Italians along the Albanian coast brings that theatre of the war into consideration. Rapid strides have been made. The French and Italian assault was launched north of Avlona on July 6th. Strong Austrian positions have been stormed, and it appeared that the Allies had been successful in turning the Austrian right wing. An official statement from Rome says that Italian cavalry have gained the Austrian rear and destroyed bridges across the Remite River which paralleled the Volosha where the attack was made. This marks an advance of about 15 miles. Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German Foreign Minister, has retired from office, it is announced, and the German Emperor has accepted his resignation. This has been expected since Von Kuehlmann's address in the Reichstag on June 25th, in the course of which he said victory would be won by purely military decisions could hardly be expected. Czech-Slovak forces in Eastern Siberia have extended their sphere of influence up the Amur River to Nikolayevsk, an important naval station. The defeated Bolshevik troops, with their Austro-German allies are said to have retired toward Khabarovsk, the capital of the maritime province. General Pershing's official statement of operations along sectors held by the Americans makes special mention of heavy German troops' movements near Mulhouse in Alsace. It is reported that German airmen are very active in that sector of the front.

OVER 500 PRISONERS TAKEN.

PARIS, July 10.

The war office announcement tonight says: South of the Aisne the enemy's counter-attack against the positions taken by us in the region of Chavigny farm, failed. The number of prisoners captured in the attack this morning west of Anthuel is 530. We also took about 30 machine guns. Eastern Theatre.—In the region included between the Devell River and the Temerica, our troops completed their success, capturing, after bitter fighting all the Boasia crest between Cafa Benoit and Maltig Jarper. We took 130 prisoners. On the left the Italian troops operating in conjunction with ours captured the heights of Cafa Devrols and continued to advance on the left bank of the Temerica. The enemy infantry and artillery displayed great activity on the Macedonian front, especially at the Cerna Bend, where five groups of assaulting troops attempted to penetrate our lines, but were completely checked and suffered seriously.

SUCCESSFUL MINOR OPERATIONS.

PARIS, July 10.

(Via Havas Agency.)—Since the last German offensive, despite the absence of actions on a large scale, says a semi-official statement, the French troops have harassed the enemy by minor operations, improved their positions and captured numerous prisoners. The number of prisoners taken with the co-operation of the Americans, is 5,400, including 60 officers.

SECULATING AS TO PURPOSE.

LONDON, July 9.

An Amsterdam despatch to the Central News Agency, referring to the landing of British forces on the German coast, says there is uneasiness in Germany on this account, and quotes the Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung as speculating on Britain's purpose.
