J. Colbourne, stating that S. S. Mary had arrived at Catalina in a disabled condition. The message requested that immediate assistance be sent. The Mary left Bell Island over two weeks ago on a sealing expedition, having on board a crew of ten men, including Mr. J. Colbourne, a shareholder in the Steamship Company. The ship was reported from Cape St. Francis on Tuesday evening last,, and since then her whereabouts were unknown. Some anxiety was felt for her safety, as it had been feared that she had been caught in the ice floe's. The Mary was in charge of Captain Bourne, and was well provisioned and coaled. A Tragedy Recalled.

RUSSIAN PRINCESS SHOT WRONG MAN.

GENEVA, (Associated Press) - A tragedy that attracted the attention of Europe and America fifteen years ago has been recalled with the death. in an asylum near Berne, of Princess Leontieff, a Russian Nihilist. The Russian Princess, who was known on two hemispheres for her revolutionary activities, shot and killed under dramatic circumstances a Paris millionaire named Muller, whom she had mistaken for M. Durnovo, then Russian Minister of the Interior, who was alleged to have sent thousands of Russian political prisoners to death in Siberia. M. Muller was lunching alone at a hotel in Interlaken when Princess Leontieff, who was only 20, approach ed his table and fired seventy shots. Her innocent victim fell lifeless to the floor, the Princess exclaiming, .. Thank God. I've rid Russia of the greatest murderer on earth." The Princess was unaware that the real object of her vengeance, M. Durnovo, had left for Berlin two days before. She was sentenced to four years' penal servitude and twenty years' expulsion from Switzerland. After two years in prison the unfortunate woman became insane, and was removed to an asylum at Munsinger, near Berne, where she Wedding Bells.

FAOUR-NOAH.

A very pretty wedding took place on Sunday evening last, April 23, at St. Patrick's Church, when Mr. E. G. Faour led to the Altar Miss Mamie M Noah, daughter of Melin Noah of this city. The ceremony which took place in front of the main altar, was performed by Rev. Dr. Kitchin. The bride was given away by her father, whilst Mr. Kaleem Noah, uncle of the bride, supported the groom. The bridesmaid was Mrs. S. G. Faour, sister-in-law of the groom. The bride attired in a silk dress, with overlace and carrying a bouquet of flowers, looked charming. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to New Gower Street, the residence of the brides parents, where a reception was held. Over 70 guests were present at the feast, and happy speeches were made, one being by Mr. John Noah, cousin of the bride. Amongst the numerous presents received was a purse of gold. Many valuable pieces of silverware were also included which testified to the esteem in which the happy couple are held. The Telegram wishes Mr. and Mrs. Faour many years of wedded
