THE BIGGEST SUCCESS IN YEARS!

Meeting Decides to Delay Selection; F. G. Bull and George E. Williams Likely Choice

The Federation of Ratepayers' associations at its meeting last night decided that the question of selecting candidates was too important to be losed without some further consideraion. While it went on record as favoring the principle of putting candidates into the field for the coming civic elecions, it was decided to refer the matter to the associations again for conideration, and to call a meeting on Tuesday, October 29, at which time candidates will be selected and possibly a platform adopted. The Glengarry and Killarney association was the only one that had considered the subject, and it recomnended as president, F. G. Bull, who is rice-president of the federation. The name of the president, Geo. E. Wiliams, was also put in nomination, but both were withdrawn until the special meeting on October 29.

The federation went on record as endorsing the present early closing bylaw, and as being determined to do its utmost to have it passed at the civic elections. It will not favor any candidate who is opposed to the bylaw, and would like to see it extended so as to include other workers who are not enjoying the privileges now of lately enjoyed by the retail clerks. Abolishing Commissioners

A long discussion took place upor the recommendation brought in by the East Central association at the last meeting, which called for the doing away with two commissioners, and relegating their work to the mayor, council and heads of departments. The South Calgary association reported in favor of the recommendation.

The women's associations and the Ogden association reported that they had not sufficient information on which to endorse or reject. The other locals had not discussed the recommendation with the exception of East Central association, which introduced it. The women ratepayers had had Commissioner Graves out to explain the commission form of government, and are likely to oppose the recommendation. President D. Ormond, of the Crescent

Heights association, though it would e poor economy to do away with the commissioners, and then pay the alderssociation, was of the same apinion . M. Chesser, of the Bow Valley association, cited Glasgow as an example of voluntary mayor and aldermen, and hought a mayor who was a business ranager could do the work satisfac-

President Williams President Williams vacated the chair and spoke on the question. He had been of the opinion a year ago that one commissioner might be dispensed But upon closer investigation during the year he was convinced that the amount saved in salary would be more than covered by the amount los by the change in relegating these matters to the heads of the departments. As for asking one commissioner to do the the work of the three, he thought that could not well be done. And it could not be shouldered upon the aldermen, as some of the best men were wing out now because they could not afford to spend the time at present required of them. He pointed out that the conditions in Glasgow were much different to those in Calgary. In the cities of the old land many men had independent means, and could afford to give their time to civic affairs. But in this country there are not enough of that class, and if there were, it is a question whether it is wise to delegate too much power to them.

L. Doll thought that the commisdoners had spent too much money in the past, and claimed that debentures ad been sold for an extension to the street car line to Rocky View, and the money diverted to other channels. D. Ormond replied that the people who passed the money bylaws were responsible for the expenditure of the The resolution was laid upon the

Protest Milk Prices

A resolution was received from the outh Calgary association, protesting against the price of milk being in creased beyond 10 cents per quart. The federation endorsed this protest. One lady wanted to add to this a protest against the price of butter. She said that she had positive information that one of the large dairies was using hundreds of pounds of butter in the manufacture of ice cream. But no ection was taken in respect to butter Ald. Arnold asked that the associa tions take up and answer the questions propounded by the city council's special committee on the financial situation which were published in The Albertan last Saturday.

The Tuxedo Park, Northwest and women's associations, which meet this week, will discuss the questions, and special mass meeting for the ratepayers' associations will be called for next Tuesday, October 15, in the coun cil chamber, to take the matter up nendations to the committee.

Why Skinner Was Elected Mr. Jos. Knight, of the Northwest association, wished to go on record as lisapproving of the statement made b Ald. Skinner that the citizens were not sufficiently educated in civic affairs to intelligently select their repre sentatives on the council. He said that Ald. Skinner might argue thus from the fact that he had been elected. But Mr. Knight wished to point out that was not ignorance, but the system which made it incumbent upon the electors to vote for a full number of andidates that was responsible for the election of Ald. Skinner.

The Tuxedo Park Ratepayers' asso ciation will meet tonight at the Ranch House. The president, Mr. Little, has returned from a southern trip, and rishes to meet all the members. The Women's Ratepayers' association eets on Thursday afternoon in the St. Mark's parish hall. South Calgary. The Northwest Ratepayers' associa tion meets on Friday night at 8 o'clock n the Capitol Hill Cottage school.

TRANSIT STRIKE ENDS St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 9 .- By unanimous vote striking employes of the Twin City Rapid Transit company tonight agreed to the order of the Minnesota public safety commission, which terminated a strike now four days old. Union trainmen in Minneapolis and St. Paul return to work

Booster W

BOOST!! Get the votes this week via the subscription route.

The 100,000 extra-vote club is available this week, too, for a little more in subscriptions than last week. But the extra $3 won'f affect a hustle very much.

Most of the candidates are now getting into their pace, and it is easier to get an $18 club now than it was to get one when it required $12 worth

Besides the fact that the weeks are going by and the contest is getting warmer and warmer, that $50 special prize is looming up bigger and bigger. Candidates have already put in one week's work toward it and this week will likely make greater progress, getting ready for the great rush next week -the climax that will spell success.

It's a fine time to have your work count double-for the extra $50 prize and for the regular prizes as well. Never lose sight of the five automobiles. If you miss the Chalmers, there is still the Grant Six, and if you should be so unfortunate as to not win the Grant you will have to compete with candidates in your own district only for the Regal, over $1,200 worth of automobile. People in this vicinity have never before had such an opportunitya chance at three automobiles for spare time, and none worth less than $1.215.

It is a little bit early to go back after second subscriptions, as it is best to cover the field before going back a second time. For the benefit of the city candidates, we want to say that there is much virgin territory in Calgary. Only last week one of the Calgary contestants dug up some new territory and in a couple of hours gathered three subscription payments and 10 promises, all likely good.

Some of the "high spots" have been covered several times. That's not the territory for the most support anyway. To test it out if a candidate should take a business block and cover it thoroughly the subscriptions which would result would be surprising. Do a thorough job while at it. If you find a buiness man engaged, make a note of it and go back again.

The Morning Albertan can be sold on its merits. In Calgary everybody every household-wants it "with their breakfast," and it is simply up to the hustlers after The Albertan's contest automobiles to put this proposition forcibly before any present non-subscribers for The Morning Albertan that may be found. In order to help out, present subscribers may pay a year or two in advance and avoid further "annoyance" And the paper costs less by the year, too.

In districts 2 and 3 there are many small towns and some of the larger towns that have not yet responded to the "call." In fact, within a week we have received several new nominations that promise well for the entrants. It is NOT too late to enter the contest. It is never too late to take up such a good thing as getting an automobile for spare time. Regardless of the larger vote at the beginning of the contest, the most of the work in these affairs is done during the latter half of the contest period. And the "half" period has not arrived The contest has six more weeks to run. The extra votes have gone down so gradually that candidates starting in now are at no

One of the recent entrants wrote: "I have been watching the contest since it was first announced, and since there is not a candidate from my vicinity. I believe that I stand a pretty good chance. Send me supplies immediately." Now, that's the spirit that wins every time-Backed up with six weeks of good work—and a good prize should go that way. The trouble with many is that they enter early and think they have time to "burn," and do burn it, while one who enters later feels that there is no time to lose, and loses no time in getting busy. The balance of power is often in favor of the later entrant.

Another thing-many subscribers tell candidates that they will support them if they show enough progress that will likely make them a winner of a big prize. No one can win a big prize without the best of support. If everybody waited for good progress, where would a candidate get a start? Come on, subscribers, do your part!

This is BOOSTER WEEK! Forget these little three and sixmonths' subscriptions-make it worth while for the candidate. Say a year or two years and if you want to help worth while make it three years. The candidate's smile for the latter term will more than repay you interest on your investment, and will go a long way toward bringing one of the autos where you, Mr. Subscriber, want it

Now for the $50 special prize, and the 100,000 extra club votes!

Extra Votes for Week Ending Next Tuesday

For each even $18 in subscriptions turned in for the week ending next Tuesday (October 16), candidates will receive 100,000 EXTRA VOTES (in addition to the regular schedule). Any surplus left over from last week's club offer will be included in the $18 club this week. It is not necessary to hold back subscriptions until a full club is secured. An accurate account is kept of all subscriptions turned in, and as soon as one $18 club is reached the 100,000 votes will be issued. Candidates are not limited to one club. Eighteen dollars gets one 100,000 special ballot; $36 gets 200,000, and so on. Let your subscription collections increase, and thus make sure of one of the autos. And don't forget the $50 SPECIAL PRIZE for best work last week, this week and next week.
