Bogus Birchells.

An examination was held in the Police Court yesterday afternoon, when Matilda Watson and John Butson were charged with deserting the babe found near the Grove Church on Saturday, Aug. 23. The evidence as brought out was to the effect that the woman resided on a farm near Stratford with her parents. Butson was employed on the farm, and in this way became acquainted with his companion. Mrs. William Baskerville, with whom Matilda lived while in the city, testified that the girl called herself Mrs. Birchell, and that the prisoner Butson in the role of Mr. Birchell was frequent visitor. The child was born on Aug. 10, and on a Friday a few days afterwards Butson called with a carriage and took away the mother and child. The child found at the church was the same one that was at her house. Chief Williams stated that when he arrested the woman Watson, she confessed that the child was hers and that she had protested against Butson deserting it, but that the would have his way in the matter. Daniel Bacon, Martha Cummings and Detective Phair were also examined and gave corroborative evidence. The Magistrate committed the prisoners for trial.

this city, the sad event taking place at an early hour this morning. Very few of the most intimate friends of the deceased were aware that he had been ill, and when it was announced that he had passed away their astonishment and grief was beyond bound. Mr. Craig was one of the best known and most highly esteemed commercial travelers in Western Ontario, beloved alike for his genial disposition and manly qualities. He was born in London, on Feb. 10, 1853, and learned the drygoods trade with Mr. A. Sharp. For the last nine years he had been traveling for the wholesale firm of Dickison, Nicholson & Co. In 1881 he was married to Miss Mary E. Young, of Oakville, who died four years ago, leaving two daughters aged 5 and 8 years respectively. Deceased was a consistent Christian and a life-long member of the First Presbyterian Church, holding the position of secretary of the Sunday school for years. He was a member of St. John's Lodge, 209a, A. F. and A. M., and also belonged to the Royal Arcanum and the Oddfellows' societies. The surviving members of the family are Mr. S. H. Craig, Mr. Wim. J. Craig and Mrs. John Stewart, of this city, the remaining sister, Mrs. T. H. Purdom, having died three years ago to-morrow. His place in the hearts of his friends and acquaintances will be hard to fill, especially among those of the traveling fraternity, with whom he was a great favorite, and his cheerful presence and kindly face will be long missed by them. He was also vice-president of the Commercial Travelers' Mutual Benefit Association. A week ago he was in his usual health and good spirits, but on Friday week was confined to his house with what eventually proved to be typhoid fever, and the surprise of his friends at his untimely death may well be imagined. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community in their affliction. The funeral will take place from the family residence to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. THE ST. GEORGE TRIAL.

THE ST. GEOFIGE TRIAL.

Justice Rose Gives Judgment on the Questions Submitted to the Jury.

Toronto, Sept. 13.—At Osgoode Hall this morning Justice Rose gavejudgment on the questions submitted to the jury in the famous St. George trial.

He found that on the material question as to whether there had been a negligence on the part of Blackwell, the engineer, to apply the brakes after the accident, there had been a practical disagreement, and in consequence he gave no judgment either for defense or plaintiffs.

There had been no neglect of reasonable precaution in the matter of the broken tire or the building of the bridge.

The case will be argued again on October 4, in so far as the point of disagreement is concerned. WHEAT—Weas, 3000 cash, and 30pt., $1 092
