REMEN CALLED TO SMALL CHIMNEY FIRE rong Address Gave the Brigade Much Trouble.

The firemen were called last evening the corner of Elias and Ontario treets, where a chimney had caught re. There was no damage. There was some trouble in locating he fire, as a wrong address was given. The brigade responded to the corner of Dufferin avenue and Ontario street, and after hunting in vain for the fire, proceeded north.

Much time was lost by the mistake. DEATH OF MRS. LEONARD

Saw His Father Strike Mother Boy's Story in Crowe Assault Case

-Case Is Remanded.

George Crowe, of Dorchester, who reently pleaded guilty to committing an ssault occasioning bodily harm to his vife Anna, since deceased, appeared before Judge Elliott today for sentence. After hearing several witnesses and an ppeal for leniency from Mr. R. G. Fisher, his honor remanded the prisoner until tomorrow.

The case in many ways is a most peculiar one, and one that is arousing nuch interest, especially in North Dorhester , where the offence was com-

A moment later witness heard the sound of a stick, such as a roomhandle break. The boy again went out to see what was the matter and saw his mother sitting on the rear step of the house. The father struck her several times as she sat there. The next day Mrs. Crowe's face was in a terrible condition, her eyes being so swollen that she could scarcely see, and her face terribly bruised.

Crowe that day visited a daughter working near home and after telling her that he had done something that he should not have done, asked her to come home and attend her mother. Dr. Banghart was called and pronounced he woman's condition as serious. Mrs. Crowe's condition rapidly grew
