Examinations.

Toronto, May 19.—The newly-elected benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada met this morning, when Sir Aemilius Irving, K.C., was reappointed treasurer, and the standing committees were chosen.

Sir Aemilius Irving, probably the oldest knight, and certainly the oldest barrister in Canada, was proposed by Mr. Justice Osler. He was made treasurer for the first time in 1893, and has filled the office continuously since then.

then.

The committee on legal education recommended that honor examination papers be abandoned, but the report was referred back.

The Ontario Government is supplying $500, and with this amount the barristers' robing room in the west wing of Osgoode Hall will be renovated. Tables and chairs will be provided, and besides other improve-

OPPOSES CHURCH UNION

Methodist Layman Criticizes Presby-terianism at District Conference.

Montreal, May 19. - Church union and the 'ne temere' decree of the Roman Catholic Church were the chief subjects of discussion at the meetings of the Montreal Methodist northern and southern districts here yesterday.

Rev. W. S. Bradford, secretary of the western districts here normern and southern districts here yesterday.

Rev. W. S. Bradford, secretary of the northern district, which met at St. James' Methodist Church, headed an attack on the proposed basis of union of the Congregational, Presbyterian and Methodist denominations, after a resolution, which stated that "the Montreal northern district hereby declares its approval of the documents, known as the proposed basis of union, as a basis on which the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational Church may unite," had been introduced by Professor C. E. Bland, and seconded by Dr. Sparling, Mr. Bradford asked if the Presbyterian Church had anything extraordinary that "we should seek to derive benefit from it. On several questions I decilen to side with it." He went to to say that on the question of temperance, the Presbyterian Church had taken a long time to arrive at a definite stand, and declared that whatever the Presbyterian Church had done in this connection it had learned from the Methodists. He cited cases of Presbyterian elders stding with liquor dealers against the Methodists of certain Ontario towns.
