CONTROL OF PRICES U. S. Government Prosecutes Kellogg's

Toasted Flakes Company. [Canadian Press.] Detroit, Dec. 26 .- The Kellogg Toasted Corn Flakes Company is alleged to be violating the Sherman law, in a petition in equity, filed in the United States district court here today by order of At-torney-General Wickersham to settle for ill time the extent to which a manufacurer may control retail prices. The ompany and its officers engaged in the nanufacture of Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes are charged with fixing prices at which the flakes are sold to retailer and onsumer, preventing competition which would reduce the price to the public, and creating a monopoly by concentrating the entire interstate traffic in this commodity in the hands of jobbers and retailers. who abide by price agreements exacted by the defendants. It is alleged that the defendants have invoked the patent laws through the use of a patented carton inwhich the flakes are packed as a "mere subterfuge and device" to escape the provisions of the Sherman law. The overnment asks for injunctions to prevent the company, its officers and agents, from controlling the price of the breakfast food after it leaves the f the manufacturer. The following are named as defendants: Kellogg Toasted Corn Flakes Company, and Will K. Kellogg, Wilfred C. Kellogg and Andrew Rose, respectively president, secretary and general manager of the company, all of Battle Creek,
