tre here again today, and as Umpire adian League club. Walsh left for Toronto last evening, tolay's game should be a little more harmonious than yesterday's affair. Umpire series here for the balance of the week, and after nearly two weeks of Walsh, the St. Thomas boy will be decidedly welcome Walsh's long stay in this city shows poor management on the part of President Fitzgerald. No umpire should be allowed to stay more than a week in any city on the circuit, no matter how good his work is. After the trouble here last week with Walsh he should have been sent elsewhere on Monday, and a new official sent here to handle the games this week.

Hammond Works Today.

Carl Hammond will be sent against the Petes in today's game. This will be "Cuz's" third appearance against Curly Blount's men, but he held them to three hits last time, so he should have no trouble getting by. Cresswell may be used against him, although Belting or Sterling may be chosen.

Frank Smyjkel, the Ottawa second base man, has been loaned to the Fort Wayne club, of the Central League, by Shaughnessy. Fried is going good for the Senators at present, and Smyjkel is not needed. Nepso, the Fort Wayne second sacker, was hurt in a recent game. With Brant, Bramble and Smyjkel, the Fort
