VICTORY.

The big job is done. We have just put it over, you have done it boys! Our hats are off to you.

Time's greatest, highest hour has struck—the mightiest victory in the whole history of this world. The big job is done over there.

Brave boys! Do you think we don't know the biggest thing that is faced from this awful struggle? Ah, but we do. It has perished and burned clear the high white flame of true Democracy.

Through you and with you the world has found Brotherhood—the world has found God.

For no one nation—no one race—no one creed has won this war. White, black, yellow and red—Jew and Gentile—Catholic and Protestant—all such age-old lines of separation the flame of battle has burned away—they have sunk out of sight in the melting pot of Universal Brotherhood, in the common cause of decency, humanity, and liberty!

Then, here's to you brave boys of our native land! The crown of wild olive which Victory holds forth to her sons has its thorns—for your hearts ache with ours for the brave hearts that can never come home with you.

And a humble, adoring Canada pledges you in this her high hour of triumph, her life, her treasure and her most sacred honor—that the ideals for which you fought and the vision of Brotherhood you have won—
"Shall not perish from the earth!"

OUR NOBLE HEROES.

In this hour of thanksgiving and rejoicing, with the noise of the celebration of victory yet in our ears let us remember those who will never return, these heroes who have given their all that we may live. Let us remember the lonely mothers, wives and sweethearts, the little fatherless children whose emotions of victory are saddened by the recollection of the absent one who sleeps where the poppies blow in Flanders fields. To these heroic women and these half-conscious little children let us give all honor and comfort.

PEACE HATH HER VICTORIES.

The enemies of civilization are taking the count one by one. Bulgaria, Turkey, Austria—all have succumbed to the terrific onslaughts of Great Britain and her glorious Allies, and perhaps before this gets into print, the instigator of the foul crime against humanity, the once proud German Empire, may have thrown herself on the mercy of the world.

That will be the Peace that seemed so far away only a few short weeks ago. How glorious it will be to know that our boys "over there" are through fighting. And we will re-establish them in peaceful pursuits.

"Peace Hath Her Victories No Less Renowned Than War." It is for us, then, to remove the difficulties we see in our path, and we can do this by leading the Government to the limit of our ability so that industry will not lag and Canada will face the new problems with serenity and confidence.

GREAT LIVE STOCK DEMAND.

Shortage of cattle, sheep and hogs in fact all live stock, Canada will be called upon to help restore the flocks and herds of Europe, and the after-war demand will be greater than the war demand, is the view of those in touch with conditions.

NOW OFFICIALLY KILLED IN ACTION

Lt. Stewart McLean Fell in Advance on Cambrai—Letter From Chaplain

Mr. Peter McLean received a despatch from Ottawa last Thursday evening stating that his son, Lieut. Stewart McLean had been killed in action.

It will be remembered that early in October word that he was missing, presumed dead, was received.

Lieut. McLean was awarded the Military Cross for bravery on the field over a year ago and all will regret to learn of his death.

The following letter has been received by Mr. Peter McLean from the Chaplain of the 87th Battalion in reference to the death of his son, Lieut. S. S. McLean.

France, Oct. 16th, 1918.

Mr. Peter McLean, Campbellton, N. B.

Dear Mr. McLean,—

I am the chaplain of the 87th Canadian Infantry Battalion to which your son, Lieut. S. S. McLean belonged.

No doubt you have already been officially notified that he was missing after an engagement on Oct. 1st, near Cambrai. I am sorry to have to write you that there is every reason to believe that he was killed on that date.

No further information has come through as yet, but we expect that there may be some in a few days as the enemy have been driven far back from that line now.

Lieut. McLean was one of the very best officers of the Battalion. In the recent fighting he did magnificent and heroic work being especially mentioned by the commanding officer. To the very last he bravely led his men, who had utmost confidence in him. Thus he was a son that a father can be justly proud of.

It is well to keep in mind the great and glorious cause for which your noble son was fighting. It was to drive the cruel invaders from the lands they have so heartlessly ravaged and to make freedom secure, not only for our own loved country and empire but also for all mankind. Honored indeed is he who suffers in such a righteous cause.

May the loving Heavenly Father wonderfully comfort and bless you and all other sorrowing friends. I am, Sir, sympathetically yours,

M. H. JACKSON, Chaplain.

A VOICE FROM THE TRENCHES.

"Give me a fighting chance! I'm going through hell for you. You asked me to go. I gave up my job, my income, my home, my friends—all. Not once but a hundred times have I thrown my body before imminent destruction—between you and your assailants. You expect me to keep on risking my life until the danger to you is destroyed. All right, I'll do it! But give me your support—not your life, but the protection and fighting materials your money can provide—more guns, more shells, more bombs, more airplanes, more picks and shovels, more tanks, more supply trucks, ships, locomotives, cars—more, more of the inanimate things that can be replaced later. When my life goes, it goes forever!" Day Victory Bonds.

DEMONSTRATION MARKS WAR END

Campbellton Citizens Enthusiastically Celebrate Signing of Armistice.

The war is ended. This was the cheering news that greeted the citizens Monday morning, but because of the hoax of last Thursday the citizens awaited the official news with suppressed enthusiasm.

When at 7:30 His Worship Mayor Alexander received a telegram stating that it was officially announced from London, Washington and Ottawa that the armistice had been signed at 5 o'clock and that fighting would cease at 11 o'clock (Paris time), the signal that the war was over was given by the blowing of the siren of the Shives Shingle mill and soon every mill, factory, locomotive and tugboat whistles was adding to the din, while the church bells pealed forth the joyous news of "peace on earth."

Soon the streets were crowded and everyone displayed flags and bunting. A number of the valiant home guard procured shot guns and ammunition and the noise of battle was brought to our very doors.

When the good news was received at the shell factory the entire force formed up and with noise producing implements of every kind formed a procession headed by H. McLennan with the bagpipes and marched through the various streets, adding to their number as they marched.

His Worship at once issued a proclamation calling upon the citizens to fittingly celebrate the glorious news, first by a thanksgiving meeting in the Opera House at 2:30 and later by a parade.

Thanksgiving Meeting.

Long before 2:30 every available seat at the Opera House was taken, and by the time the meeting opened there was no standing room.

The stage was very artistically decorated with flags of the allies.

The arrival of the members of the G. W. V. A. in uniform was the signal for a great demonstration, the audience rising and cheering the returned heroes, who were invited by His Worship to occupy seats on the platform.

His Worship called the meeting to order and asked that the doxology be sung which was heartily rendered. In a few remarks he explained the object of the meeting and called upon the speakers, Rev. Mr. Camp, Rev. Mr. Barnes, Rev. Mr. Rowley, Rev. Mr. Wallace and Rev. Mr. Miller, delivered short but enthusiastic addresses. Mr. A. T. LeBlanc delivered an address in French.

At the close the large audience stood quietly a half minute in memory of those who had fallen and would not return. The national anthem was then rendered and the meeting was over.

The Procession.

The parade was then formed, headed by His Worship and the Campbellton band, then the members of the G. W. V. A. in uniform followed by floats, teams and decorated autos. The route of march covered the principal streets of the town.

There were many good features considering the short time available for preparation. The Kaiser, with his imperial moustache in perfect form and attired from helmet to high top boots was led a captive in irons, by a little Belgian boy, while behind on a carriage was his coffin duly placarded.

The employees of the McLennan shell factory had made a big gun of six inch iron pipe, with a 5.9 shell for a powder chamber. This was mounted on wheels and at intervals charges were fired that shook the windows.

Dr. Sprout also had a comic float entitled "Paris or Bust—Busted!"

The procession was one of the longest and most enthusiastic ever seen here and certainly did honor to Campbellton.

At 7:45 thanksgiving services were held in the different churches, and were well attended.

Later a monster bonfire was lighted on the rock back of the town and illuminated that district. Fireworks were put off and residences and places of business were illuminated. The noise work kept up all night.

Tuesday, by proclamation of Governor Pugsley, was observed as a public holiday and places of business, mills and factories were closed. During the evening a demonstration was held about the C. G. R. Depot. A large fire was lighted on the vacant lot there and the Kaiser in effigy was burned. The train whistles and railway shop horn blew down the curtain upon the last of Campbellton's demonstration which will be long remembered.

200 POUNDS FLOUR THE LIMIT.

A bona fide farmer who has grown wheat himself may have 200 pounds of wheat flour in his possession, or enough for ordinary household requirements of 200 days, and so may any consumer who live at a greater distance than five miles from his regular licensed miller or dealer. All others are now limited to 100 pounds or 60 days' supply at any one time, except those householders cut off from civilization by the close of navigation. These people may also have the limit of 200 days ordinary supply of flour and of sugar likewise.

And Now—Our Part

Canada's Army has splendidly finished its share in saving civilization on the battlefields.

Now let us take up the completion of our underline share of the task.

Canada must still continue for a time to maintain her soldiers; must provide transportation to bring them home, must arrange for their future so that they may again become self-supporting units in a reconstructed world.

Canada must maintain prosperity at home—must continue for a time to finance the purchases of food and supplies for Great Britain and our Allies in order that she may take her rightful place as a great sea-carrying power.

For all these things hundreds of millions of dollars will be required.

To demobilize and re-establish our soldiers in civil life alone will take many millions.

Canada's Victory Loan 1918 will provide the necessary working capital.

Therefore, Canada's Victory Loan 1918 must be a great oversubscribed success.

Our part, then, is to buy Bonds and complete our great Victory.
