55TH BATTALION AT CAMP SUSSEX

Fine Body of Men Now in Training.—Full List of the Officers

Sussex, N. B., May 15.—Special trains on Monday brought the 55th Battalion to Sussex from the different centres where recruiting had taken place, and at sundown between seven and eight hundred men were comfort-ably stowed way in their new home in the tented city on the military camp grounds, says The Record.

Thanks to the advance party every-thing was in readiness for them, al the arrangements for sleeping and cooking being complete. Notwith-standing the heavy rains of the week the camp grounds, which is noted for quickly drying up, was in good condition and no inconvience was caused the men getting ito camp under most fav-orable conditions.

orable conditions.

Bell waterproof tents are all provided with new floors, and the men are greatly pleased with the accommodations provided them and seemed delighted to get away from the towns where they have been training, and tenting out on the historic Sussex camp grounds, which is one of the most beautiful spots without any exception in the Maritime Provinces or in fact any part of Canada. The following are the staff officers of the 55th, all of whom are certainly the 55th, all of whom are certainly the right men in the right place, being efficient and brainy officers and under omy. their care the 55th Battalion will surely be a crack corps in the very near

Mrs. Kelly Advises all Women to Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

"I can highly recommend "Fruitatives" because they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking "Fruitatives" for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollar's worth, but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found only pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that some other women may start taking "Fruita-tives" after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case". In the evenings the boys who do not engage in games on the grounds take a stroll around town, and take in the motion pictures and other sights. They are a fine manly crowd of men and the citizens of Sussex are extending to them all the hospitality possible, and will try to make their stay here as pleasant as possible in anticipation of a bigger camp and with the idea of having discipline on the military grounds rigidly enforced if necessary. A guard house is under course of construction, 77 feet long by 20 feet in width, which will be provided with cells, and other appliances for taking care of the unruly, be he either soldier or civilian as the case may be. While the soldier boys are working pretty hard at the present they find lots of time for recreation football and baseball clubs are being formed and various other rodes of amusement will be introduced later on. That they are putting in pretty busy days at present may be gleaned by a glance at the following sample which was carried out on Wednesday:

6.45-7.30 a.m.—Physical drill (without arms.)

9.60-9.50 a.m.—Squad drill (without arms).

It fell showly through the air and the Germans could be seen hurrying from all directions to take cover from what they evidently thought was a bomb. That it bounded to an enormous height from the ground without exploding was probably taken to be due to a 'delay action' fuse, for it was not till the ball finally came to rest that they emerged from their shelters to examine it. On it was written: 'April fool —Gott strafe England.'"

KNITTING FOR THE BELGIANS.

(By Juliana Cuyler, in The Living Church.)

Little Joan had learned to knit to who is second in command, and all the officers are determined that nothing will occur at camp Sussex that will mar the good name of the 55th. If the recruits to come in are of the quality of those now in camp, the guard house will not be very well patronized, as the men appear to enter into the spirit displayed by their officers of desiring efficiency, and a good name for the Battalion.

A draft of 45 men from the 55th left Camp Sussex on Wednesday for St. John to complete the strength of the 26th Battalion. The Citizens played them from the camp grounds to depot. A detachment of 80 men from the 6th Mounted Rifles arrived on Wednesday to train as infantrymen.

"It wasn't a dropped stitch," she said. 'She had muddled it a bit, and I thought it had best come out. American children are never taught to do anything thoroughly."

I knew she was right, theoretically, and yet as I looked at all that was left of it it seemed so pitifully small and inadequate, a labor of Sisyphus, a few stitches its only foundations of fact, its accomplishment a thing of faith! And, after all, it had not been given the child as a task; it was a voluntary offering of her best laber, unskilled though that labor might be. By her act of service little Joan had enrolled herself in that great army of Pity the stream of whose self-sacrificing love is being poured forth for the healing of the nations. Against the horror and raisery of war that other army stands, its patient devotion helping to prepare the way for that Love which must eventually conthe norror and falsery of war that to other army stands, its patient devotion helping to prepare the way forthat Love which must eventually conquer all things. And on through the dim vista of the future years the young recruits, of whom little Joan is one, are coming, a vast uniumbered multitude on whose foreheads is set as a seal, the vision of Peace.

Before I went to bed I had knitted all the crinkly, ravelled-out part of the worsted in again. Then I took it upstairs and laid it at the feet of little, sleeping Joan.

I knew that with the first light of the coming day she would sit up in bed and with all the pity six years is capable of and all the energy which had been generated in six years, she would knit, with her stiff little fingers,
for the "Beijums."

Truly its destiny is great—the filing grey scarf on the fat worden needles!
