

ABBEY CRAIG AND THE WALLACE MEMORIAL.—Above a densely wooded hill near Sterling, where Wallace had, some years before, defeated England's army of invasion, rises a massive monument of stone two hundred and twenty feet in height. It is the national memorial to Wallace. It stands as he stood, solitary, unshaken and majestic, towering above the country he so gallantly defended.

A Profit Paying Company.

Mr. THOS. J. PARKES,

Manager Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada,
Sherbrooke, Que.

Policy No. 26080.

Dear Sir,—I am to-day in receipt of cheque in settlement of the profits for the last five years on the above policy, and I wish to congratulate the Company on the largely increased profits they are now paying, as these profits show an increase over the previous five years of more than three times, or in other words return to me over 31% of the premiums I have paid during the last five years. Again thanking you, I remain,

Yours truly,

L. A. BAYLEY.

TUCKERTON, Pa., June 1st, 1909.

Dear Sirs,—The dividend certificate mailed to me, showing a cash dividend of $43.15 on my policy No. 115724, was very agreeable news to me. This dividend is in every way satisfactory, and I am only sorry that my policy is not for a much larger amount.

Yours truly,

ELMER BRIDGEMAN.
