

CHRISTMAS CAROL.

Carol, happy children!

Oh carol loud with me!
 And make glad music on this day
 Of Christ's nativity!
 Among the holly-branches,
 Green leaves, and berries red—
 We'll sing of him who lay, a Babe,
 Within a manger bed!

Carol, happy children!

Oh, carol sweet with me!
 To tell the joy of Christmas tide,
 And Christ's nativity!

Around the holy altar,|

O'er arch and nave are hung
 The green and red, for Him whose
 The shining angels sung. [birth

Carol, happy children!

Oh, carol glad with me!
 Because 'tis now the blessed time
 Of Christ's nativity;
 And every one should sing aloud
 "Good news" o'er all the earth,
 For this is Christmas Day—the time
 Of our Redeemer's birth!
