on December 20th, but owing to an invitation elsewhere, your writer was unable to attend, but was present at one on Jan. 2nd, and had quite an enjoyable evening. Mr. Barkin and Mr. Sepner both former pupils of the Institution are members of the Association, and both are doing well. Mr. Sepner resides in Windsor, but is very often seen in Detroit.

I suppose it is rather late in the day to mention last summer's vacation, but perhaps it might interest some of you readers to know that the writer spent several weeks with Mrs. Richard Pincombe, at Poplar Hill, Ont., and had quite a pleasant visit, returning to Detroit not only looking, but feeling, much benefited by the pure country air. I am happy to say that Mr. Pincombe is getting along splendidly. In a few years if all goes well he will have one of the best farms in that part of the country. They have three very bright little children and a pleasant, happy home. Mr. John Pincombe is also getting on nicely. No doubt all of your readers are happy now, as there is plenty of snow, we have not had so much in Detroit for several winters, and the sleigh bells are ringing early and late. The writer has not been so fortunate as to have had a sleigh ride yet, but expects to go to a sleighing party soon. As I have written enough for the present I will say good bye, with the season's greetings to one and all.—L. McL.

BERLIN BRIEFS.

From our own Correspondent.
Miss Prudie McLitcheb was in Guelph visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pottiford's for a week. She said that Charles was confined to his bed with sore throat. We had the coldest day on the 10th Jan.—20 degrees below zero. That day when Mr. Henry Gottlieb was going to his work, he got both his ears frozen but they are all right at present. Mr. Andrew S. Waggoner will be here on the 28th, to see the carnival at the skating rink. We will be glad to see him again. Messrs. Henry and Emil Gottlieb saw Lord Stanley, Governor-General of Canada, on the 7th Jan. He made a short visit to Berlin. He is a fine looking man, and can speak German. Berlin people were delighted and pleased to hear his German speech. Emil Gottlieb had three weeks holidays at Xmas and New Year's, and had his brother from Norwalk, Ohio, visiting him.

DETROIT DOINGS.

FOR THE CANADIAN MUTE.
I noticed in a former issue of your paper, a request to all old pupils to write if only a few lines, so I will try what I can do, but as I have very little time, and no practice at all in writing, for papers, I am afraid what I write will not prove very interesting. First I must tell you that I really don't know how I could get along without you. Have often, in thinking of the past, wondered what has become of certain class-mates or other friends, but now you quite often tell me what I want to know. Bye the bye, it will soon be time to send you congratulations in reaching your first birthday, so while I write I will wish you a happy birthday and many of them. The deaf of Detroit have formed an Association, to take the place of the Badgley Literary Society they formerly had. The Association is composed of gentlemen only, but they have a Literary meeting once a month which the ladies are allowed to attend free. They also have a social occasionally, which is very enjoyable. The gentlemen do all they can to make the assemblies pleasant and agreeable to the ladies, which I think we ought to appreciate, and I for one sincerely hope the Association will be a success. I am sure it will be if all only try to be reasonable and do our best to help the Association and each other. "Pansy," whom many of your readers are acquainted with, spent Xmas in Canada with her sister. She left Detroit December 17th. On the 15th she had a few of her best friends to spend
